

The Path

of Life

The Path Of Life by S. Germaine
As Received by Margaret E. Petty

"Dedicated to all Mankind"
"Seek God Within"

Introduction

I, St. Germaine, have dictated these lessons for those that are ready to receive. The Lessons are simple and to the point. You that read must realize, although I gave the Word, the meaning will be according to your own consciousness. Your Teacher is the spirit within; I just give the Substance which becomes thought, The thought manifests as Truth for you to live by. The choice is up to you.

I give it my way, others give it their way. It matters not, as long as you keep searching, desiring to receive "OUT OF THE HEART OF GOD AND NO OTHER SPIRIT." This request keeps the door open and you will grow into the Great "I AM" (God), leaving the dead to bury their dead - meaning all that use worldly physical power to do God's work. As you search, remember we of the Hierarchy are always with you. We give of our Vibration, which is LOVE and PEACE to encourage you along the path of return to GOD. PEACE can be found wherever you are. It is as close as you let it be. SO BE IT IN PURE CHRIST LIGHT AND LOVE.

PRAISE

Mighty are the Works of Man
When GOD is in command
Praise HIM as the work unfolds
HE is all with all
Mighty is the Light of Man
When GOD is in command
Praise HIM as darkness becomes Light
HE is all in all

Mighty are the Gifts of Man
When GOD is in command
Praise HIM as gifts unfold
HE is all in all.

Praise GOD as HIS power flows:-
Through You to all great and small
Praise HIM, Adore HIM
HE IS ALL IN ALL

Be thankful.
Be thankful and praise the Lord all the day long.
Your day will be blessed,
So within his arms you rest.
Now Wisdom from within finds its way to unfold.
The power of the absolute is a story to behold.
The story is great indeed;
It is awesome and supreme.
A tiny flame has come forth into form
And from it must gleam.
Hallelujah;

How great this power to perform;
How Holy and Divine.
When you release it and it is mine,
The power of this tiny flame is my Holy-God-Self.
What a responsibility for all time.
Time is passing;
Eternity goes on;
And I have remained.
Now I find this divine spark,
Hidden by clouds of darkness.
As I find Love now to give more,
And to give me from souls
That are above and below,
The road is made brighter.
So again
All I can say is, be thankful,
Be thankful.
Praise the Lord all day long.
Your day will be blessed,
As within His arms you rest.

Cosmic Law

Cosmic Law is the law of energy and vibration. It is an activity directed by Cosmic Beings. The law does not change, just the ways of action of the law at certain cycles to suit the consciousness of mankind. There is good in every teaching.

Through the centuries many human concepts have crept in and be-clouded the truth. Stay open-minded to recognize the Truth as you come across it. There is an inner and an outer action of the Law. The use of the Law of transmuting erases the etheric records which are within your subconscious.

Principle

Principle means source or origin, reaching into the higher realms; this will lead you to the Principle or Source which is your own I AM Presence. Some call it God; Jesus said to have no other God. It is the I AM Presence that is forever striving for expression through you.

The first principle action is an inner action which is Love. As you grow in consciousness of this Love, it becomes the outer action of this Principle or the Source of God which is I AM. Three other actions are Faith, Hope, and Charity. Faith means knowing that you are divine, and all things are possible when you love your God within; you remain with this thought-action and you never waver. Hope is desire with great expectations. Charity is universal love. I AM is the Source, expanding Light, or Energy, to all mankind. The words "I AM," the Principle or Source, is part of the cause and effect world. To use a word of your world so that you can comprehend it, I will call it energy that flows within your body to give you life. This energy which is seen by clairvoyant eyes appears as a vapor so it is sometimes known as a ghost or a spirit.

The use of the words I AM denotes an individualizing of a Being, meaning the Absolute Universal Energy which has no beginning and no end. It is functioning within a personality-body to act in whatever realm It is to function in according to its consciousness. This speaking of the sacred I AM in the worldly context as saying "I AM sick," etc., is using the words in vain. I AM is always divine. When you speak it of body ills or worldly overcomings, it is wise to say the physical body has a physical problem or say nothing at all. Here is where your faith abides. Decreeing that your I AM is perfect is wasting time and precious energy. Remember Faith, hope, and Charity. As you grow in consciousness all will be revealed its perfection to you, and then you will realize that the world and its problems are false and are of your creation.

Cosmic Light

Cosmic Light released from the Central Sun is Divine Substance given forth by cosmic Beings, each releasing their love-principle to the realms of the earth. In this way they grow. It is the same as you, only on a higher level. The Divine Source expands itself. The will of mankind is changed into the Will of God by the gifts of the cosmic Beings. This light is like bursts of fire giving forth golden sparks of Divine Substance which contain the Power of the Absolute to raise the consciousness of man. This Substance is what the world sees as Rays.

Each Ray, when it comes into the atmosphere of the earth, takes on a different color. Each Ray is supervised by a certain Being of the Hierarchy. The one that is most important to mankind right now is the Transmuting Violet Flame.

I AM Presence

I AM Presence is your Source (Jesus called this His Father). It is a living Being of blazing Rays of intense White Light. Around this light are seven Rays of various tints that interblend, and this is called the Causal Body. It contains all Good or quality-energy of the individual through the ages. The Rays are the Divine Mind of the I AM Presence in action at Cosmic levels. From the heart of the center of the I AM is a Ray of Light that extends down into the physical body through the top of the head, goes to the heart, and to the base of the brain. Then, by tiny streams of Light, it goes to every cell of your body. Think about that just a bit. This is an unconscious action on the part of your lower self. It is a conscious action of the Christ-Self or your Higher Mental Body, also the elemental body which I will explain later.

The Christ-Self releases the amount of Life or Light for the body to function to fulfill the divine plan. When mankind expresses his or her desire and will, the energy then is drawn down by the physical self and used to glorify the lower self. This energy should be sent back with love to the I AM Presence every single day. Very few have obeyed this Law, so the energy has accumulated and found a resting place within the lower bodies which I shall speak of later.

Around the physical body is a Pillar of Light. It is placed there by your first desire or realization that you of yourself can do nothing, and that you desire help from a higher source. Within the Pillar of Light is the Transmuting Violet Flame. This Flame of Divine Love, brought forth and anchored within the earth for your use by St. Germain, remains around you at all times, but will not act until you call it into action. Then, it comes up from your feet, circles around and through you and penetrates with that Pillar of Light which is the Christ Light. All action is established according to the degree of feeling that you give forth. How strong is your desire to walk the path of return to your own I AM? This is done to you according to your desire. Remember all teachings come from Divine Source. Some are explained in worldly terms so that each one will be able to understand.

St. Germain gave a teaching that was called I AM. It was organized on earth ...this desire of Love within his Being... and was made manifest. Jesus the Christ came with the same desire of Love to anchor it also on the earth. It became an organization called Christianity. Mankind used it to appease only his or her self. Some lifestreams on earth are called to bring forth His teachings in pure form; so certain ones have been chosen, because of their development in ages past, to be instruments through which the Word of Life or God can be given to mankind on earth. The I AM teaching in its purest form is unfolding with the purest form of Jesus' teachings. That is why we should combine only the pure essence of the two teachings ...not that of superstition or of free will, but only of God's will being done. Also, as you grow in this Love, the physical mind will be consumed by the Divine Mind. The I AM does not act at lower levels. Only Divine Will will remain; the rest will fade away as time is very precious. So be it.

Christ-Self

Your Christ-Self is a Being that is all-knowing. It holds only the positive action within Its consciousness, and is aware of your worldly thoughts and needs. It regulates the amount of energy that flows through your physical body to perform your worldly tasks. Some require more energy than others according to their missions or their physical overcomings.

The Christ-Self stands close by and is always ready to help when you remember to give It recognition. When you have strayed away from the Light (Christ-Self), It has not drawn away from you; your consciousness has gone to earth, leaving a blank void. By your desire you can reach up again to find it, shining brightly, just as before.

The Christ-Self is the mediator between the physical and the I AM Presence. It does not know the divine plan; It must go to the I AM Presence for Wisdom, for the Christ-Self is to perform the Divine Plan through the physical body when the lower bodies are pure enough for It to function within them. The Christ-Self always is the Comforter, the Holy Dove which guides and does the work in a holy and divine way when you release all to It. You will find the God within, this I AM Presence or Christ-Self, as you release more and more of your worldly trials. As you pour love to your Higher Self, which includes all of the pure inner bodies, your Christ-Self will call upon the higher Souls that form the Hierarchy to come to you to teach you because they can come closer to you than your Christ-Self. They prepare certain souls to be vessels to work through. It sometimes takes them 10 to 15 lifetimes to get the results they want. Higher Beings will choose certain ones and overshadow them all of these lifetimes, so, when the right time arrives, they join together and become one and feel comfortable and right. Christ is the principle action of the I AM. When the action becomes great within you, you glow in Wealth, Health, and Beauty.

Pillar Of Light

The Pillar of Light was given to you by the I AM Presence or by the Grace of God, which is the same thing. Remember you have been told that you are a divine and Holy child of God: of the Absolute. By your own desire you fell from Grace or your I AM Presence. You must realize, "from that time until the present" expands over many eons of your worldly time: perfection to imperfection. Those that are interested in higher truths of "the now" have been searching for many lifetimes, and now is the apex of time as events are coming into action that will thrust man into higher consciousness. The earth also will move into a higher dimension. As you grow in consciousness, the Pillar of Light will tighten about you. Your faith becomes action, not just a principle, and it protects you. You have opened your door to God or to your Higher Self with love. The Love responds and consumes all cause and effect as One and then it becomes nothing. The physical mind has only to give up the worldly ideas of fear. Then you can walk anywhere knowing that wherever God is, I AM, and where I AM, God is.

You can be of great use to the Source of Light, walking in the depths of what you call hell, releasing those caught in the debris of their own karma. They, of course, have free will, but your powerful I AM, or God Love, will penetrate and enter their consciousness to where they will desire a better way of life. You must realize the I AM, or the Father, as Jesus called it, is a great doer and will respond and fulfill all your needs. So let go, and just let it be.

The Blue Flame

You of the world seem to need something of a worldly nature or spiritual phenomena to assist you in your return home. You of worldly religions have your belief that Jesus died on the cross for your sins. Those of the Higher Truth know that He came as a great Master of Life to teach Love; that love, and Love alone, saves and redeems you into eternal Life. Love is the Principle that contains all facets of the Word, and these facets must be put into action.

At the present time higher beings of the Hierarchy are all giving some facets of their own causal body to assist you along the path. Those that have attained their Christ-consciousness do not need their help because they are living within the wisdom of their own I AM which contains all facets. But until then, they of the lesser consciousness need help. We of the heavenly Hierarchy have offered our lights and flame.

We also grow as we help. Our action is an inner action. We release the power of our causal-self through the Christ-Self which is pure. It radiates through you. You say you feel vibrations. We realize that not everyone knows what they need, nor which Spirit is to give it. It can be given just by your desire ...something like this, "Oh Holy Dove of Love and Light, descend upon this child of God." Then wait, as all will be done according to the divine plan of your life. Just have faith, as this also is the key. Without faith your consciousness will remain worldly and full of doubt which closes the door.

There are many uses of the color blue. The Flame of the Blue is the one we wish to expand upon as it is very important to those who now wish to advance. As you advance into the consciousness of your higher Self, using the Violet Flame ...the law of Love and Forgiveness – the part of misused energy that is left in the lower bodies will be released by Lord Michael's Blue Flame. Call it forth, as you call forth the Violet Flame. It is very potent as it is part of the Three-Fold-Flame.

Now, I would advise you to wait until you are guided to be able to use this Flame. I promise you that you will be told when the time is right. Many Masters of Light use the blue color since it comes from the One Source. It is really not important for you to still the physical mind with this information, for you with a strong desire to know your Christ-Self and who then send love back to your I AM Presence, will find it responds. The way you send it is by the use of the transmuting Violet Flame. As you purify the lower bodies, of which I will speak to you later, you enter into the realm of all the heavenly and then various colors and the hue of them are an inner action guided by your own Holy Spirit that must not be used by the physical mind.

Transmuting Violet Flame

As this is a time of great change ...all things moving into a higher dimension... the Cosmic Beings of All agreed to help mankind, and it was so decreed that a Law would be given making it possible for man to transmute, or erase, his misused energy of God Power that he used to glorify himself. This Law is the Law of Love and forgiveness. The use of this Law is very important as you must be free of the cause and effect, or the duality world. All you have ever done is within your own self. Some call it the subconscious mind. Use the Violet Flame with great feelings. Use it in your dealings with those you are led to be with. Watch your feelings when you meet or have feelings with others. Feelings of guilt or dislike must be transmuted. Also, as you speak words of dislike or condemnation or even think it ...at the end of your day draw forth all that which is within your mind and transmute all of your misused energy. As you sleep, when you have a dream or vision that bothers you, even if you cannot understand it, it must be transmuted. Transmute means to change, erase, do away with, change a fact into Truth. A fact has a beginning and an end; Truth has no beginning or end. The Violet transmuting Flame is the Fire of Love that consumes. ...you call it Karma. This Karma is energy which is Life that flows within your physical body; that moves the physical to abide on Earth to learn lessons or to perform missions that will help overcome worldly beliefs that are of your own creation.

As you have been told many times, the time of change is close upon you. We of Hierarchy are ready to help, for so it has been ordained. To those that are not aware of their inner bodies, I shall expand on this so you become aware of why you are transmuting. All life within is Energy or Power that comes from the I AM That I AM which you call God; it has many names, but we will use God for now. You all were created perfect in the image and likeness of God which is Spirit. But because of your desire to do your own will, you are not born perfect; you are born with many imperfections. These imperfections live within your consciousness. This is of worldly beliefs and are not real; just illusions. The God Self will prevail because mankind must return to their Source. As you grow little by little from lifetime to lifetime, there will come a time that the Spirit of God within is able to reach you and you begin to search.

Your physical mind will comprehend that it is listening to many thoughts ...some beautiful and constructive, some within the worldly part of you; and waiting to manifest in your world, because thoughts are alive and will come into your world.

As you search for Truth, you will be led within yourself. You will be climbing the mountain to find the pinnacles of Truth that live within the Great I AM Presence which is pure Essence, having no duality ... it just IS. You come from it and give it life.

As you accepted rebirth, meaning having lived a physical life before, and also are beginning to realize there is a Source greater than the world and yourself, the awareness comes to you that the Source must be within yourself. You also grow as you are led to search. You will be led through many teachings until you find the spiritual food you need.

The awareness comes slowly; it must become a part of you. The Law of Life will be made known to you by Me, St. Germain. With my compassionate Love I see within your Light and know you are ready to receive this gift, "The Violet transmuting Flame." This Flame is the Alchemist Fire that erases all Karma with others, also Karma with your own God-Self. I call this Karma Misused Energy.

You must realize that God is Power; Power becomes Energy. As it comes within your body, this Energy becomes Life. You came from your Creator as a flame in order to experience all that this Power called God could become. The Flames divided, become Male and Female. The story is a long complicated tale of woe.

The results are all in the world of cause and effect. All souls have used the Precious Power of God to glorify themselves, to manipulate others to get their own way, to cast demons into animals, and in many more ways that I will not relate. All of this remains within your lower bodies. All on Earth at this time are guilty, to some degree, of the misuse of the Power of God.

Since you have created your own world, I will explain the use of The Violet Flame which turns darkness into Light, releasing you from a duality world.

You must first have a strong desire. The words I reveal to you in the form of decree can be said aloud or in silence; it is the strong feeling that is important.

I give this to you only as an example, as it is important that you let the Spirit within guide your words. I will use words belonging to your world as of now.

"Humbly I come, oh God, that I may be forgiven my sins against Thee. Within the Violet Flame I place my sins; they are changed into Pure Light. I now send the Light back to You to be used again by Me for the Glory of Thee within all the world. Love, oh perfect Love. So be it."

Now as the desire for overcoming the world is strong within you, the Hierarchy of the heavenly Host are permitted to come and reveal to you through dreams and visions ...also leading you in your daily life... into your own misused Energy. When you have dreams that disturb you, transmute them. The events you see are waiting within to manifest in your world; that which you see and transmute will not come forth. Of course, you are not to transmute all misused energy, as many lessons are learned by living through your own creation.

When the time of change comes, the Earth and all mankind existing thereon will experience many tribulations of illness and grief... each receiving in the level of severity that is according to their growth. I do not mean Spiritual growth. It is not how many gifts of the Spirit you have as to the growth of man; it is how he is living his everyday life. Also, many that do not know of Spiritual Laws but have grown into the Peace of their own souls by living through great agony in a previous lifetime, can tolerate more pain and grief. They have developed a power to rise above their cause and effect. Although they do not realize this, from the standpoint of Karmic Law each lifetime gives growth of the soul. Some overcome a great amount. Everyone chooses the amount before coming into life. Sometimes they are sorry they took on such a heavy burden. It is so wonderful when we have seen their suffering, then meet them when it is over and rejoice with them. "Hallelujah! Well done, oh faithful ones."

"By the Grace of God" it is said. Yes, by the Grace of God you are given all Eternity to overcome that all may return to the Father's house. Why do you travel this worldly dense road? Well, you say, I was created perfect, why must I become imperfect? I will relate to you in this form:

Out of the "Heart of God" you came, created perfect as God is perfect. You were happy, knowing your Source, being happy to be just the expression of God in his likeness and form. Now, as what you know as God had to come from some Source, it was not perfect: it just seemed so. The only perfection we can realize is what is called the Absolute, where it is pure Power; nothing is existing - it is nothing until it is put into expression by those that are created from it. As I will say, a Power that explodes and expels Flames out into the universe. Of course, you must realize this I AM is not the beginning as there is no one that knows the beginning as I AM Alpha and Omega; no beginning and no end.

Now, what you call God was from that Source. That God created a world and said partake of all the trees in the garden ...all except one, the Tree of Knowledge. You see, He knew of good and evil; He knew that if you belonged to Him you would know it also.

He also said, I am a jealous God; I want you for My own. I am your Father. I created you, but I will give you free will to go forth and learn all I know. So he sent you out on your own, giving you all Power to use.

You know the story of the Prodigal son. After he had spent the money (Power) his father gave him, he had to work his way back home without any help. He had to walk back the same route he went and pass through all of his mistakes. You know how his Father welcomed him home; even so your Father welcomes you.

How about his brother that stayed home and was always perfect? Well, these are what you call Angels. They will grow and grow by those on Earth loving them and letting them serve them. The only way for the children of God to grow in his likeness is to know all God knows. This is represented as the Tree of Knowledge which is Satan; and the one called Lucifer is the Angel which became the negative Power. Now as the world is moving into a higher dimension there will be no need of two Powers. So Lucifer will regain his rightful place as an Angel of Light, just as all which overcome will return home. What a celebration it will be.

For many eons of time man had to live out his cause and effect (that which he created with the Power given to him by his Father), satisfying his own ego and forgetting his Father's gift of Life and Power. As this is the time of Great Change and all must move on and there is not enough time to live through all of their mistakes, we of the Hierarchy have been given the privilege of helping; that is the reason for the Violet Flame.

Blest are those that use the Violet Flame; in their Spirit only Love abides.

Now is the time, oh beloved ones of earth, to transmute your cause and effect, bringing forth a new birth.

The Flame opens the door where within is found God lives, and all is Divine.

Come! The way is now made clear: All...within...is found, where no man can destroy.

Love All Creation above and below. Be happy, Rejoice.

God's great Love He will bestow. Praise God; know, oh children, Ye are God's ... At Heart!

Elemental Body

You are more than you appear to be. Within the manifestation of the physical body ... in order to appear as each is to appear ... there first must be a cell that contains the pattern for all forms that are to come forth from your Flame. All of us progress through the many kingdoms of Earth life. The pattern takes form and becomes the Power to bring forth the correct form for each lifetime. As the experience of each lifetime is over, the pattern grows according to the growth of the Flame.

Passing now over eons of worldly time, overcoming the Animal Kingdom, you find yourself in a physical or human body. You are still of the Animal Kingdom, the only difference being the body is more refined and you stand upright instead of on four legs. All this time the Flame and Patterns are growing so as to perform. I now call the Flame "God" or "I AM THAT I AM." You take all of this for granted ... and so be it as the growth has been long and is so much a part of you. Now, I give the pattern a name; it is the Elemental Body, a gift given at the time of creation to be of use as you progress through the world of "cause and effect." The elemental Body is smaller than the Physical Body and since it is not of dense form, it lives within and intermingles with your Physical Body. It is an involuntary action. As you grow, it develops, for it knows nothing intellectually nor spiritually; only that which you tell it. You have not been aware of this, so it knows many untruths. As you grow in Truth and Light, it grows.

When you are ready to leave the cause and effect world, the Elemental Body can incarnate and live in a Physical Body of its own, and progress.

The Elemental Body always looks like the Physical Body, changing with each lifetime. The Flame always remains the same and stays with the Spirit between lifetimes.

While the body is growing in the womb, the Elemental Body comes and watches over the baby, molding it according to the Pattern for the coming life experience. It has been programmed to know the Karma which the Soul must overcome.

I, St. Germain, come with blessings from the Hierarchy to explain more fully the Violet Flame and the chart of the Tree of Life. I will not explain creation; I am sure you can find avenues that will explain this to your satisfaction.

By now you must realize you have built the Soul Bodies of the physical body. The Soul must be redeemed and you must have the desire to use the Life-Energy (which people on Earth call God) that lets you move and lets your being be used to glorify the Holy Absolute, the Source of all creation.

The God, or perfect Life-Energy, is always the same; you do not add to or take away Energy as it is always giving forth the correct amount of Life

Force to maintain you wherever you are existing.

Now, the problem begins when you use the five-sense mind of the physical world. You then shut the door and the Life Energy cannot flow evenly. By mind-power you expand the energy and over-tax the body. In time (and I am sure I do not need to expound on this subject), you have exhausted your limit; old age and diverse conditions appear.

These events have taken place through the ages of time for each Soul on Earth. I might interject at this point that the energy you create from mind-power, you, of course, use to create every move and every thought until you find you can no longer accomplish the events you desire and find they do not satisfy the ego. Then you begin to search for something you do not know exists, but you know there has to be something. As your desire grows stronger, you receive as much Love-Energy as you are capable of understanding. Also, as much as your body can handle.

Remember you are now receiving pure Life-Energy which is very potent and must be given slowly. All life which is of your own creation is what you must transmute. You can send Love and Light to them and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal to them that they are using life in a negative way and that they shall have to transmute all that which they have created ... every word. Everything that you have ever done in a negative way that was using the power of God in the wrong way has been put into the soul, and when it strikes you, when you hear it at all from any point or place upon the earth, and it comes forth and it raises an emotion within you, you know that same thing exists in your soul and therefore must be transmuted.

So, if you do not feel anything whatsoever, and you do not join in the emotion of any of this, then you may not have to do anything; only bless those through the power of Jesus Christ that have committed the negativity, as I would say.

That Life of Love that is within you shall continue to grow and to blossom as you each use the Violet Flame upon that which you yourself have created.

There has been also, "group Karma," to where you will be in groups where you will find that there is a lot of negativity and you must draw yourself away from it and know that it gives you a feeling of discomfort. The whole situation gives you discomfort. So, you must transmute it. Everything you have ever done will be brought up from the cesspool of life into your consciousness to let you know here, now I am appearing and I want to be redeemed, so to speak.

When you hear within your own head, conversations that you know are not well, you will hear words, or things will come about, just remember, this is not from the Christ-Self; it is coming from the very soul that needs to be redeemed. So right away, whatever negative thought that you would have, you must transmute it. You must know, dearly beloved ones, that as you travel your life, if nothing bothers you whatsoever and you let everyone do their own things and it does not mean anything to you, then you have grown into a beautiful being; this shows you are now in command of your own Christ-Self, and the soul has been redeemed. You are only living in the world; you are not of it.

The Light of God that flows within each one knows the only way you find the Light is by clearing the emotional bodies. Then all which is of the Most High can be given unto you. I, St. Germain, full of Love and Light, that gives you this Light of Love and Flame of overcoming,
I give it to you from the very Love of my Being. I love you, I love you, and you are well on your way. Blessings at this time. Amen and Amen

Inner Bodies

At the time of creation, as you have been told, you were created perfect in the likeness of God, the Holy of Holies, which was Spirit which is changeable being one with all; the body not as you are conceiving it within your physical mind as I now am giving you this message. "Come unto me" sayeth the Father within, and all things will be added unto you, Meaning, "Yes Dear Ones, all things large and small," great Wisdom containing many Gifts of the Spirit. I, St. Germain, come only to open the door, helping you to climb the mountain of overcoming.

The time is now for everyone to awaken to the Spirit within. We of the Hierarchy have the privilege of helping because we have traveled the same road. I am not to expand upon the creation nor the Fall of Man. It is enough at this time to know you were given Free Will and you, like the "prodigal son," traveled away and created your own world. The fall of man means man's self consciousness glorifying only himself; as this happened he became more dense. In the process, the lower bodies were of his own thoughts taking on a form that used the physical form to function within. These of course must be transmuted into pure Light. By worldly desires you created them; now it is up to you to release them as I have told you in a former message.

The world you live in is an illusion; the real World is of Spirit found only within the I AM of you and dwells within whatever realm you have attained by searching for the God that dwells in the Most High of your consciousness. Jesus said, "In my Father's House are many mansions; I go to prepare a place for you." As you grow having only one desire, out of the Heart of God through the Power of Jesus you find yourself dwelling in a high state of consciousness or higher mansion.

The inner bodies are explained by the chart.

God's Will

Many awaken to the Spiritual World by the way of mind over matter, using their gift of Life to benefit their worldly lives to become healthy, wealthy and wise. We of the Hierarchy realize there are many steps to be taken as you travel the Mountain of Attainment. That is the reason we come to you with this message; that time is running out and we have been given the signal to help all those that will listen. It is up to you. Do you wish to continue upon the Wheel of Rebirth? If not, take heed to my words.

Mind over matter means using any physical object ...meaning crystals, pendulums, etc., that will give you false experiences: physical exercises, visualizing, magic power such as physical prayers, love, and manipulating others according to your own desire as to what is right for them.

Clairvoyance and clairaudience when given to you by the Spirit of God within you is a gift to be used in secret and in silence, aided by the Holy Spirit.

Jesus said, "Ask and you shall receive." When mankind prays from his Heart, the Angels of Mercy hear the cry. Because of man's free will, the Lords of Heaven cannot help unless someone in physical form intercedes for them. Those that receive their Gift from Spirit know they do not help by sending Light and Love from the physical mind. They ask the Holy Spirit to help those in need. The Holy Spirit knows everyone's need and gives accordingly.

When mankind is ready to completely give up his free will and let God lead the way, then there is no need for an interceder.

Realize That of the Most High filters down through your lower bodies and shall make you pure. The Light of God that never fails, within each one, is the Holy Spirit of Light; it is all-Powerful, all-Divine. This Light opens the consciousness of your being, and, as you apply it to yourself, the knowing of the Most High comes within your mind. It shall be revealed unto you that which is for you from your own God-Self. The I AM THAT I AM of the Holy Light of God holds forth the promise that is given unto you at the time of your creation, and all things shall be made perfect. Unto thee I bring the Light of God so that we are all One, the Oneness of God, as we approach the time of overcoming the world. Relax in this Love and know only that which is of God will perform within your life. So be it.

To be a perfect channel of Love and Light, all must come from the Most High consciousness you have attained. You then shall grow higher and higher because you have kept the door of Light open and can go forth into the very I AM of yourself and bring forth from the Christ-Self of your own Being, going forth into all eternity. The Light that shineth within each one grows lighter and lighter. You shall attract many unto you and have the pleasure to gleam unto them the Will of God. How Blessed! Praise your God, the Great I AM within. Release your will, and find Peace.

Prophecy

You that are of the world now have waited a long time, as time is to your mind. The struggle has been long and heartbreaking, but your quest is almost over. Graduation Day will soon be upon you. The testing days are ahead, each one tested according to their chosen way. Those that have desired Truth and have proved themselves worthy reap the greatest harvest.

Life is eternal; only one Life. Many feel life ends with death. The Spirit never dies. The outer shell is shed when it is no longer needed. The Spirit goes home to rest; also to study in the realm of consciousness it has attained. When it is ready to be born again the Karmic Board shows it its new life in the physical world; the school room of overcoming cause and effect (Karmic).

Now is the time of testing, as I have said. The future holds events that you will be amazed about. Some worldly disasters, some wonderful Spiritual events

...you see bad, some good. Everyone will find themselves in the midst of what they have earned. You will have bad days and good days. No one can escape. You will surely reap what you have sown.

Those who have attained a high degree will be called upon to help awaken those that will listen. Do not take it upon yourself to awaken others; the Spirit within will let you know. Be about your own search for a higher consciousness. There will be teachers for all levels. The teachers will be chosen that know, one does not continue to perform physical phenomena ...that is just a step up the ladder to the Absolute. Students must be taught slowly. As the saying goes, spiritual food is fed as you feed a baby; by spoonfuls, growing gradually to be able to digest solid food.

As the world progresses the time comes when all must leave the Earth, as it must move back to its right position in order to function in its new position in the universe. Those Souls that are to live upon it will come back through the form of birth according to the higher consciousness of the new world. I will give that in detail in a later message.

I know you are concerned about where you will be at the time the Earth is being put into the correct orbit. Every soul on Earth will be saved as there are many mansions, as Jesus told you, in God's Heavens. Your spiritual growth will determine where you will dwell. The Earth you know now will be the home of those that have overcome the cause and effect world. Many that are advanced souls will dwell there also to help teach new souls.

The worlds of the universe always are the dwelling places for many levels of consciousness. The plan of each soul must progress slowly. The Light of God within works in mysterious ways and is revealed as each one is ready to understand.

Vibrations

The events of the world have a great effect upon life as all are vibrations. The mighty men of "mental thinking" give out the vibrations that control the world. Many are in high positions of your government. Many do not have the interest of the people at heart. Their own selfish interest is their only desire. The only way for them to be handled is for all of the ones of higher consciousness to pray in silence asking the Holy Spirit to surround them with the Violet Light. They will soon be put where they deserve; also the chain of cause and effect will be broken between those that are caught in this group Karma.

The Violet Light penetrates the physical mind as a purifier and cleanses your bloodstream. It does not take away your cause and effect; it just cleanses your physical mind and brings a desire to search and find something, you know not what, but you will surely find.

So many in the world need this awakening. Do you see the missions you can perform? You must understand that not everyone will awaken to the same degree. There will always be differences in consciousness. But it will help a great deal to relieve the heaviness of the vibrations upon the planet and bring a great blessing to all.

Vibrations of higher Beings expand the consciousness of mankind. Where this occurs, man begins to receive how to better himself. Your world is receiving books upon books that are to help people find a better way of life ...all explaining physical ways to accomplish their worldly desire. This, of course, is only a step up; they are not aware that the God-Self is drawing them into the Perfect Self. The God within never rests; It is like a great magnet drawing you unto Itself. This, given in different words, is like the story of the Prodigal Son. The Father gives free will, knows the child must know all the Power of himself (the Father), experiencing it for himself (the son) learning from the mistakes he (the son) makes. All the time the child is away from his Father's home, the Father holds the concept of his safe return home. This concept is Love, a magnet so strong that it will finally break through the worldly dense consciousness and, little by little, he grows from truth to Truth until he realizes it is of his own selfish desire to create just for his own self aggrandizement that the desire to find the perfect way ever comes upon him, and he becomes humble and finds his way Home.

Death

Some on Earth have no concept of the meaning of death. You are given to express great joy at the birth of a child and grief at the death of a child, young or old. There are some nationalities that rejoice when the soul leaves the body and grieve at the birth. When a soul decides to come to Earth, it is not for enjoyment; it is very serious and sometimes has very heavy Karma. They are aware of this and have been prepared in Spirit and sent forth well equipped with Love. It isn't easy to leave the Spirit World of Love and Contentment knowing what you are to face during your Earth life. As the Spirit enters the physical body, the door of memory closes, giving the Spirit a new start. In the case of many souls that have little to overcome, they are aware of what is called Eternal Memory. This can be a blessing, or it can be a curse. These souls have a great burden as the testing is great. If they use the Eternal Memory in a worldly way and glorify themselves, their Karma is tripled. If they pass the test and use the gift of Eternal Memory to glorify the Spirit of God and lift up their fellow men, they will be glorified when leaving the Earth.

Everyone on Earth is being tested in some way or other; some more than others. Some are just babes as far as Spiritual growth and are not given much to overcome. They learn by making decisions that bring forth either a negative or positive reaction.

When it is time for the Spirit to leave the school room and go back home, it is time for great rejoicing in the Spirit World. They are welcomed back with great Love and are shown their progress, and also where they could have done better. They now deserve a rest. If the Karma has been heavy and they passed from worldly life into Spirit willingly, without fear, they are required to rest a while to remove all worldly thought forms. Sometimes we of the Hierarchy will penetrate the correct way to treat the dying souls of Earth. It is beginning to be known, but it must come into the consciousness of the medical doctors. They must learn they are not to prolong life, as physical life is not the important issue. When someone that you love dies, do not mourn or grieve; be happy. They are released and you will meet them again sometime. In the meantime, your "memory door" can remain open and you can feel their love because love never dies; it is always with you.

The word "death" has been used only since the organizing of religious groups. It is like many other words and also customs that you take for truth, but are only someone's idea of how to express a certain idea. The word death is in the Bible because translators put it there. Of course, their words were in the language of the country they lived in, the same as now, each meaning the physical body had been cast off and the Spirit released. The word has fear and unhappiness connected to it. This should be changed, and it will. Some of higher consciousness already feel this, so the use of the word "transition" will be used more and more. Do not confuse "transition" with "ascension." Transition means changing from one state of being to another; Ascension means arising to perfection ...no more dwelling in the consciousness of duality (cause and effect).

The fear of death must be overcome. It should be welcomed as a time of releasement. No matter the cause or time or place; when the time arrives you will transcend, as that was the plan set in motion when you were born. Everyone has the right to transcend in whatever way they choose as this also is a part of their Karma or overcoming. Those that interfere with this bring Karma upon themselves.

The way the physical body is laid to rest in your world should be to satisfy the consciousness of those that are left behind. There is something that can be learned from this.

All will eventually learn that cremation is the best way. If the one that has made the transition made a plan, then it should be according to their desire. They are free and happy, all of Love and Light within the Mind of God. All of worldly cause and effect is left behind, to be picked up again in their next incarnation. They deserve a rest; also to go to school in a high spiritual schoolroom to prepare them for their next incarnation, each time learning and gleaning so as to open them fully to the Holy Spirit of God.

Marriage

Before you were drawn down into the abyss of the world, you were a Divine Spirit, completely one with your Source ...male and female, yet one, drawn together as one Flame (the separation came when entering into the world of cause and effect). When a new Soul was to come into being, light rays from the parents brought a full grown individual. The process was to bring forth souls that would dwell together in harmony to glorify the Great power of the Absolute. It was a plan of Great Power, and all knew how to use God's Power, creating many wonderful, beautiful birds, flowers, etc.

You have many of these creations on your world now as the Source has been with us always and many high souls have tapped into it.

The process of going into a less refined body came about gradually. With it was brought sensualism of physical enjoyment between the male and female, forgetting the sensation of Love from the Heart

Centre to the I AM Centre. Soon what you call sex overwhelmed the people. They became as an animal, feasting on passion, and they fell into an abyss which brought forth lust and created animals. Man mated with what he had created, bringing forth creatures half-human and half-animal. The Gods of creation looked upon this and decreed that man bring forth his own likeness and animals each from their own likeness.

You must always look ahead, letting the past be transmuted when it confronts you in whatever form it appears, for many on earth are now reaping their Karma with animals. All must be transmuted into great Love.

Let us move on to the subject of marriage. Believe me when I say your present and your past is connected with everyone who has been male and female in lifetimes past, all guilty of the same acts. The male of the race was the head or power over the female; some also had great power over kingdoms ...their desire was to rule over all conditions. Women were only for their pleasure. She was his slave. The ceremony you call "marriage" was performed long before Jesus came, but for only the so-called "high rulers" and their heirs. The common people did as they pleased, many having a gathering of friends to let all know they had committed themselves to one another. There were many wedding feasts such as this; it was at such a feast that Jesus turned the water into wine, so to speak. You must realize, at that time water was scarce; many drank juice even if it had fermented; it was not considered good or evil. If one drank too much fermented juice, he paid the price. Only a few knew of the law of good and evil.

The Master Jesus came with Love to reach all of the people, not just a few. The old customs gave way to new customs. Of course, there still remained ones that considered themselves the rulers of the people; and to do this they needed rules and regulations to hold power over them. They created great fear of what some called "God." This was the start of what you call religion ...great ceremonies of all kinds were conducted by the High Priest of the church who gave their consent. If they felt it was not right, they refused to perform the ceremony. Many were married that had never known each other. The woman was to give herself in all ways according to the desire of her husband. Man was given permission to carry on as he pleased. To be a man was a great honor; to be a woman was to be a tool to be used for man's pleasure. It has not been so long ago that woman began to come into her own. Why? Because within each one's memory is the thought patterns of these past lives as male or female.. They begin to awaken, so a gradual change began. I am sure you are aware of this. The ones that were the High Priests of the past are still holding plans where they can control their congregation as ministers and priests, still ruling in a worldly way. So you see, marriage is only a rule of churches, started long ago. The marriage of man and woman is controlled by Spirit. You come together only for overcoming of the past. Some meet and marry many times, all for reason which is their Karma and no one has the right to question it. All ones on earth are of different consciousness, each growing as they live the life they have chosen, so condemn not one. Whether they feel they want to marry or not makes no difference as to their commitment to each other. I do say as Jesus said, you pay unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto Spirit that which is Spirit's. The law says to marry, or else all you have when you pass on will be given to the state. If there are children, they need to be protected by worldly law. Also, you must learn to keep worldly laws before you can keep spiritual laws. But, of course, that would not be the world worldly, now would it? You are in a schoolroom to learn. Those that love in a Spiritual way will not love in a physical way. Until you have grown into the Spiritual way, let all things be. Your desire of perfection and the purity of God within will release all of the lower animal instincts within you and raise you into a Being of God.

Visions And Dreams

Let us explore within the mind of man. You have been told that which is within you is greater than that which is in the world. This is true and each one will have the desire to search for this when the time is right.

The Power of God abiding in the Christ-Self of mankind is overflowing with Love that contains all Wisdom. The desire of the carnal mind of man ...the life it has created... will manifest until they realize the world and all that dwells therein is leading them around in circles ...events never being solved, healings that do not last... the enemy fear always being with them. They blame God for all their problems, or blame each other, always living in an up and down world. All thoughts and deeds are within your soul; all good and evil. The higher soul contains your love and deeds of kindness. The unkind deeds and all cause and effect of negativity, or, as the world calls it, "sin" or "Satan," dwells within the lower soul and must be redeemed.

The life you chose when you decided to have the experience of all knowledge was granted unto you, as was your own free will. The thoughts and feelings led you into many avenues of endeavors. Slowly mankind forgot his Source, and there his troubles began. The world has gone through many, many civilizations, many great empires; all have been made by the Power of God given to man as his birthright. And man became so blind in his search for Power, he used his birthright for all evil adventures; all have been guilty. The Satan of each life-stream must be purged and purified. The God within is that part of mankind that could never be corrupted by man's free will; the Love it contains will always overpower the Satan inside.

You grow in the likeness of God that is your own God-Self; the I AM of your identity. Within each individual there are thought patterns created by your own power of visualization that register within the lower soul. You see, you have created your own world by visualizing worldly desires, and they have manifested. Some of your desires which you thought would bring you happiness brought forth grief. As you have grown from lifetime to lifetime and lived through your grief, you have earned a certain degree of happiness that was given from the God-Self.

Without this from the God of Love within, you would never know the difference between good and evil. When you grow to a certain degree of awareness, the soul plays back in picture form what you created. The higher Soul, or over-soul, has great compassion and will intercede and show it in parables, not showing all that you did, so as not to build an emotion on an emotion. This is a way you can redeem yourself using the Law or Love and Forgiveness, transmuting all through the Power of the Violet Flame. The world calls this "dreams." So be aware of your dreams.

The next experience that we will call a dream is really you being aware of being in the Spirit World as your physical body remains asleep in the world worldly. This is very important as this is where you are learning many lessons of wisdom from the inner schools and retreats. The visions in pure color that you never forget are given from the Christ-Self as the gifts given to you to use for the glory of God. You always had them, but when you forgot your Source and claimed them as your own, they became as thorns in your side. You must realize that all that is of God that is revealed as a vision must manifest upon your world where it can reveal God to the world.

Precipitation

Precipitation is the word used in the world worldly to express the manifestation of Spiritual elements changed into worldly elements. In other words, the manifestation of Spirit.

There are many forms of precipitation; the greatest and the most desirable is the giving and receiving of mankind. It is called "universal supply." All must learn to give with Love, not expecting any rewards, releasing what was given to the receiver to use as they desire. The receiver must also receive with Love, also giving to someone else. All must give with no thought that any substance given or received belongs to them. The Source must be praised. Jesus told us, as you give, so shall you receive. This Is Important. Many with unawakened consciousness give begrudgingly so do not receive a blessing; others give willingly so do receive a blessing; both know not why. Blest are those that search and find God, their Source within.

The precipitation of worldly material from one place to another is sensational manifestation of Spirit using someone in physical form to perform the act. In other words, the Power of the Most High is being used to glorify self and that is wrong.

Precipitation of Spiritual elements into worldly elements, for the good of man, which is being performed by highly developed Spiritual Beings existing in human form and manifesting in a humble way with knowledge of their Source, is a gift and must only be used in an emergency. Jesus used this Power many times for many reasons. Many High Souls are dwelling on your Earth who will precipitate the needs of those of lesser consciousness when the great need comes.

Now, as to "Spirit" repairing physical machinery ...when the problem is not due to breakage nor negligence of the physical owner... Spirit can help in many ways. Minor repairs are performed by laser beams used by many of those that come in space ships. Also, Spirit Beings guide the hands of those who have chosen a related vocation as their life's work. Many times it is your Higher Soul that is guiding their hands. You see, all on Earth are being taken care of in many ways. The important message I must give unto you is to just relax and know the God within will perform in the best way for each one on Earth. You just relax and accept the way that is for you as that is the Divine way. Many lessons are learned and many souls are drawn together as you travel life's highway. In human form, the ways of Spirit are performed according to your consciousness, not to your faith. Faith is only the believing in something which you know not of; and you can be led down the wrong path. As I have said, relax and let the Holy Spirit lead you, bringing unto you that which has been prepared for you by your own I AM Presence, performed by your Christ-Self.

Precipitation has many means, as I have said unto you, and it is given for those that love the Lord. It is given as a gift to help only that which is of the Holy Spirit. As you go forth in life and grow, there will be a time when you will know within your own being that God within gives all things unto you. Yes. Precipitation of Wisdom; Precipitation of Light, of Faith, of all the attributes which are of the Most High, knowing, my beloved ones on Earth, all that is given to you, you are being the receiver or the precipitator, or what word you use in your world, to be the one who receives from the Most High. It is very important that I give unto you the knowledge that you must be aware that your lower bodies can precipitate false information unto you, and all things will not be well with you if you follow that which is of the lower self. Be aware as you go forth into your world that so you do not give forth anything that is not of the very highest. As we have said before so many times, you have the right to demand that you receive only out of the Heart of God through the Power of Jesus and the Source that is most high within your own self; your own Christ-Self joins with this great Power and you are one with it. We definitely know, in our realm, that not everyone upon your Earth has grown unto this development. But, my beloved ones, those that do not will stay at a certain point and will give to those that need upon whatever avenue, or the place that they are in, according to how they have overcome their misused Karma and have grown into the receiving from their higher Self. It is important that you know that there will be very few that will receive and precipitate into the world the most high messages for man. Search and find only those that will give unto you of the Higher Source. Now, you say, "How do I know? How can I be sure? It is your right; and you should know that you must test the Spirit. Testing the Spirit is very important to those on Earth; That only that which is of the Most High will be able to be brought unto you. If it does not make complete sense unto you, then, do not abide by it. All Light and Love and the Power of God within. And as the time is short and there are many things coming about in your world, you will find great confusion. You must be of peace of mind; you must know that you must be at peace with your self which is peace of mind. The Light of God that is within you shall blossom forth to where you may be able to be a giver of great Wisdom. And there will be many that will follow you because they hunger for Truth. The Spirit within and those that lead all mankind will lead those that deserve to those that give from the Most High. The Most High of those of consciousness that are to receive and give forth Wisdom to those of a lesser consciousness, they also will be led and will go and journey and walk the Earth to give that which is of the Most High to mankind.

Great is the Wisdom that will be given unto your world. Be prepared because great events will take place, and many wonders will appear. Be prepared. That is what I say. Love and Peace, I bring.

Superstition

As we explore the world in search of Truth, we are led through the vast gamut of negative thoughts that man has created. These thoughts rule their lives and they live in constant fear. Their problems multiply and multiply until they lose hold of the Truth of God within. As man has always had to have something to worship, his mind created and brought forth his desire.

Great power grew as certain ones became rulers. They ruled through fear, teaching their subjects false beliefs that held them captive. These beliefs became truth to the people. These false beliefs are what you now call "superstitions." Many on Earth today are held captive to these beliefs. You can differentiate between the true and false by this method... Truth has no emotion of fear; It brings peace; you feel free within your being. "Superstition" is false and negative, bringing an emotion of fear, unhappiness, and a desire to search for someone in physical form to protect you.

There are many on your Earth who are using superstitions, (although they will not admit it... some are not even aware they are doing it) the same as those in ages past, only in more modern ways, even using the guise of religion. Send the Holy Spirit to them, as their Power is greater on Earth than ever before. Some that were in Power ages ago are now in Power today. They must awaken to their evil ways if they are to go with the Earth into the new age. This is why they are on Earth today, although they are not aware of it.

Truth is created by God's Power, having no beginning and no end. Superstition is created by man's thinking, having a beginning and an end.

I will not go into all of the different ways and deals of being superstitious because most of the things in life which are of a negative way, or are of the worldly world, are superstitions. I would not have time to number them. Just relax, my loved ones, and know that the Light of God that is within will carry you forth into that which you need, and all shall be taken care of, and you need not fear that of the world which may bring forth superstitions of this or that within your mind.

Fear is at the bottom of all of that which is superstitious, and that which is of God is not fear. God is Love. As time goes on, all things will take place within each soul as they release this fear along with that which is of the world worldly; then what we call superstitions will be erased from your mind and no more will you live in this depth of the world, and you will erase all of that which is of the great power that you have created yourself and bring Love and Light. The Promise of God is within your own heart; it is not within your mind. Remember this. The heart speaks; the heart is Love; the heart gives you peace of mind, and the mind carries you down the avenues of fear and brings forth resentments and brings forth worldly events that will clothe you with pangs of anxiety and will bind you with chains of all kinds of things; of all kinds of negative words that I need not tell you. All you need to know, you know that these words are within your world. Erase these from your mind and let God fill your mind from your God-Self and let it be, and let your mind be used by the greatness of what is within you.

Listen. Listen...to that which God has to say unto you. If you do not receive as one that is close unto their God-Self and you're not quite ready to be completely open to his Word, then you have to listen to what we call your heart. There is an intuition that will tell you that this is right, or this is wrong; and you shall know that the right way has nothing to do with that which is of the superstition that man has placed in so many beautiful, wonderful things. Like the beloved moon. The moon has nothing to do at all with that which is a Divine part of you. Yes, it has something to do as far as the physical body if you seek it that way; you can be pulled by it. You can be pulled into what is already a superstition that it can bring unhappiness unto you, but if you feel love and you feel that which is of the God within, the moon will also mean love unto you; it will also take altogether a different meaning. So you see, you are within a world that you can accept and know that everything has its counterpoint; everything can be used one way or the other - it is up to you as to whether you let love rule that which you live and the world you live in, or if you let the opposite rule you and you live in that world. It is the Love of God that is within your own self that raises you up into the consciousness to where you will accept that no matter what it is, that it has no power over you.

There are many things, my loved ones, that you must remember and know as time goes on. The Light of God shall never fail. The Light of God shall never fail... that which is of your Earth right now.

The Light of God that comes forth as the Causal Body and is then transferred into what you call the Christ-Self, brings forth many things unto the world. It is this Causal Body, full of Light, that gives Blessings to the world by the different Masters. The different Masters give that whatever of Love or Light is within their consciousness. It is from this Causal Body that I have given that which is of the Flame of Violet. I gave it from my Violet, the Flame within my Causal Body, and it has great power. It passes down through your Christ-Self and into your whole physical being. It is given unto you so you may transmute all the misused energy you have caused and brought about. It passes as purity down to the Christ, and it goes through the High Soul and then it stays there to be used at the time you are to awaken and know that you yourself have to transmute what you have done that has built the lower soul and the lower bodies, but it remains in the Higher Soul Body until you begin to use it. As you begin to use it and you transmute and you send it back to be reused, it can then be used by the Christ-Self, or it can be used by the Higher Soul-Self.

The Higher Soul-Self is also using the Etheric Body to dwell within, the same as the Lower Soul is using the Etheric Body. It is something that is a little bit difficult to thoroughly understand, but I wanted you to know that this is the way that it passes down through, into you, and it will come forth into your physical body. I also want you to know that that is how it is re-used. I had penetrated (here I digress a bit) the Violet Flame into the ground, into the Earth, that it may be able to be drawn up through the bottom of your feet and brought up into your body to be transmuted. You may use it as it comes up through the feet ... up into your physical body ... and it is coming forth then for you to use to transmute with. Then, you send it back to the God-Self, meaning the Christ-Self and the Higher Soul Body which are still the higher part of you.

Do you understand?

This is something that is difficult to penetrate into the physical mind. After you have transmuted it ... although I put it into the Earth for your use ... you send it back. When you send it back, you are sending what I have given unto you plus the misused energy of your own self, then I let it go back into your Higher Self and come forth within your own physical self to be used by you for you to glean and to help mankind.

Then, if you do not use it to help mankind, you are remaking the same thing over again, and you will have to keep re-transmuting if you have not thoroughly done it completely right and have let it fall back down into the lower bodies to become a thought pattern again. That is the way so many do. They transmute and transmute; they send it back, and then it comes back down again and then they re-use it; instead of re-using it in the right way, they re-use that which was sent back in a negative way and it is just a vicious circle of going back and forth. It should flow to where everything that you do as you lead your life ... as it comes down through you ... it should be used in the way that is to glorify God and when you do this, everything then is perfect within you. But that takes time, because you are not quite at the point to where you have overcome all that which is of the lower bodies. When you get to the consciousness where you have this complete ... all of this ... then all will flow and there will be no desire ever for you to use the energy in any other way than to just glorify God. You will not be thinking ever of glorifying anybody else or doing anything that is wrong because your consciousness has changed into pure God-consciousness. But in meantime, it has to be done over and over ... keep transmuting and sending it back. This is the way it will work until you finally have made the grade.

All things are possible with man, but he must go through his trials and tribulations, and he must learn that these things are his own responsibility ... that neither the Hierarchy nor the God within nor the Christ-Self ... nothing can help you at all until you have really learned your lesson by not re-creating what you have already transmuted. And you will transmute and transmute and transmute until you learn not to pick it up and do the same thing over again. It is difficult I know, but each time you do it ... each time you do anything like this ... you will grow through the process of doing it. So keep it up, because eventually you'll hit a point to where you wonder ... You'll get up sometime and you'll think, "Well, why didn't I think about that before?" or "Why am I thinking today in a different way? Why am I not worrying about tomorrow? Here I was worrying before, now I'm not worrying." Finally, you've got it all and your consciousness has changed and you have grown to the point to where you will not use God's Energy wrong anymore. You'll drift along with the energy of Love and Light. The Love and the Light that is within your heart will always blossom and bloom through Love as your thoughts become closer to Love. And that's the way your world will be. And it can be roses and it can be Love; it can be all these things, but yet you can still be going through the trials.

If you will just transmute fear and know that you have no fear at all about what you are going through. You have no negative feeling of what you are going through; you know that the Sun is always shining behind that cloud. You know that the cloud will pass and the roses will bloom and you will know that the Life that is within you shall blossom the same as the rose.

The rose blossoms and gleams at the same time whether there is a cloud or whether there is a sunny day; whether there is rain or whether it is shining, it always blooms just the same.

Twin Rays - Soul Mates

There is so much confusion in your world concerning Twin Rays and Soul Mates. The difference is great, the truth must be revealed.

Twin Rays

Twin Rays were at one time one Flame, True Spirit before they ventured forth into a cause and effect world to experience the world of duality. The Flame or Spirit separated, becoming Male and Female, each setting out on a journey to learn Truth. You might question this, but when you realize (even as you read my message), to know Truth, you must have something to compare it with. Great are the trials man has lived through to learn this most important lesson.

Let me go back to where the Spirit separated. Yes, one became male, the other female. In a natural progress they grew further and further apart, each exploring and experiencing creation. My explanation is short, but their progress was long indeed. The plan that we all live by was ordained by the Absolute (higher unknown Source): that we live in the now and we live as the pendulum swings, from high to low. What a blessing.

Many times along your journey you have relationships with your Twin Ray, but are not aware of it, always just learning and gleaming as your consciousness leads you.

The Flame, when complete, before separating, was pure Spirit ... not having separate bodies. The first separation formed the Causal Body, being just light containing pure Energy. Advancing further into the unknown, the Christ-Self was created. It was to be the pattern for the entity to perform within the Power of The Absolute. The entity dwelt within what you know of as the Garden of Eden.

There it ate of the Tree of Knowledge and began to know that there was good and evil. When that happened, a new body was created; it is what you call the Soul. It was to contain the consciousness of all good and evil ... God and Satan as the world calls it. To explain to the world their inner Self, names have been created. The name "Ethereic" means bridge dividing the pure Spirit consciousness from the impure, worldly consciousness. The Etheric holds the memory of everything you have ever done. God is the High Soul; the evil, the Low Soul. The Low Soul created lower bodies so as to perform within the dense form of what you call the physical. Mental body is intellectual, obtaining wisdom from worldly concepts, living and creating their own world, and forgetting God Power as their Source. The physical consciousness is mostly emotions, fears that beget many thought forms, all created by your own desire to live your own will.

Soul Mates

Let me digress a bit. As you journey along the way to experience all of the great Power that was within the one true Flame that Jesus called I AM, you passed through many experiences. Some souls you met and had wonderful lifetimes with, as you were kindred souls dwelling in the same consciousness of the Higher Soul.

In the Lower Soul you are drawn together to overcome what the world calls Karma. This has been explained over and over. Each one must transmute or live through what they have created having full knowledge of using their pure Energy Flame to glorify their own sensations. There are ones on your Earth today that have lived through the complete cycle and several times have had the right to join their Twin Flame and work at higher cosmic levels, but, because of the ending of an age, came back to help mankind and got caught up in worldly Karma. They will remain until all is completed. And when the new age is well on its way, they will be united with their Flame. Each completed Flame has a certain mission to perform and a time that is right to perform it. Some on your Earth will meet their higher Soul Mate and do great work for the new age ... will dwell in the new age and be one with their Twin ray later.

So, I do say to all on Earth, all is divinely planned for those that love the most High I AM that is within; it is so ordained. You are manifesting into the world truth that you have obtained by living a cause and effect life. Now, knowing all of God within, you are Wisdom, the Ancient of Days. Do not search for your mate; let the Spirit lead, as you shall be drawn together either to overcome, or to gleam your love to all mankind.

Masters

The world is very confused concerning those that have overcome the world of duality. The word "Master" means to excel, to overcome some obstacle, or to rule. Also those that have lived many, many lifetimes and have paid their own debt to life and have gone on to Higher Realms. They are teachers of the Earth.

I am St. Germain; many say I am an "Ascended Master." Well, that is not quite right. Yes, I earned the right to dwell in a Higher Realm. When I say I earned the right, I mean as I overcame my Karma by the Grace of God, I ascended (meaning to rise higher). Each time you overcome thoughts of the carnal mind, even while living within the physical body, you ascend (or rise in consciousness). You are ascending all the time.

When the time comes that you have lived through all that you have created, you ascend into a Higher Realm. Many that have attained a high degree of Spiritual knowledge through worldly teaching and have visions, or bring forth messages from Spirit, consider themselves "Living Masters." This is false. They are still in duality. The students of these Living masters feel certain that their teachers, at the time of death, have made an ascension as Jesus did, when actually they have only transcended into a higher realm according to their ascended consciousness. I give you a new word: "Transcend." To "Transcend" means to surmount or to change form; it has to do with the body your Spirit dwells within. Ascension is the consciousness, the perfecting of the carnal mind into the Absolute Mind where no thought is. It is the Silent Sea of nothingness.

The Higher Realms are the dwelling place of many, many that have overcome. There are many levels of ascended thought. We come to Earth because we love all of God's children, remembering full well our own trials. If it wasn't for the love of those that went on before us, we would not have progressed as we did.

We dwell in groups you call "Brotherhoods." We have our government called "Hierarchy" (as above, so below). You have wondered why we give different levels of messages. We must reach each person in their own level of consciousness. As they grow, we give more and more Higher truths. Truth never changes. Truth is in the mind of carnal man; as man grows, he receives a higher meaning of Truth. By the time he transcends, he has ascended into Wisdom. Now he will grow into a greater Wisdom.

Jesus gave the examples of what I am telling you. He transcended from the cross, arose from the physical body as Spirit, and dwelt with those who loved him. They knew him in Spirit and could see and hear him. Then he made what the world called "ascension." He really made another transition as the body changed into pure light. The mind of the man, Jesus, was always ascending into Wisdom. He said we would all do the same as he.

Now for information about a Higher ascension. Now, it will be an ascension when the Twin Flames come together and decide what they feel right for them. They can go on into higher Cosmic Realms and never come back to Earth, or one may come back, the other not, but will remain in Realms close to Earth as teachers and guides.

We have names, as that is how man can know us. Really, in our world we know each other by vibration. We are all one, gathered together in groups, being mostly of one consciousness as you are also on Earth. We know you by your light and also by your vibrations. We can read your minds and know when it is right to receive us.

Remember, we do not call ourselves "Masters." Jesus was called Master by his disciples. Jesus said,

"I AM That I AM." Many of the Hierarchy have walked the Earth in physical form. They are there to spread Light and Love, not to be known by man. If you are really in tune with them, you shall know them but will not expose them. They come in Divine Humility. Bless you, and I say Love and Light be unto you..

Spiritual Gifts

Ye that first seek and find the Kingdom of God shall surely find Him and see Him face to face, says your Bible. Yes, and all Wisdom added to you; Wisdom given as Gifts that man of his carnal mind cannot comprehend. Now the word "find" is very important. Many seek, but do not know what it means to seek; so when they seek (or search) for a Spiritual God, they search with worldly practices. They will always find a false God. "God's Kingdom" is not of this world; so search ye not there but go within; that is where he dwells. He is a personal God.

I now change the word "He," as God has no gender. God IS; just an Absolute Power of Energy. This Energy is what man calls "Spirit" and it gives us life. I am giving you a very short explanation, but as you search, never being satisfied with worldly ego, you shall surely find. Of course, all will truly find some time. You have all Eternity to search.

Many great Beings that have gone on before you, having lived through their own creation, are now dwelling in their ascended consciousness. Meaning they have found their Source (God) within; they are known as God's. They are pure Love, giving of their Power and Wisdom to help mankind, always thinking of others, forgetting self.

I tell now of Gifts that are given to man. These Gifts are already Within, just waiting for the right time to come forth. The true disciples that let the Holy Spirit within prepare the way are the ones that will bring forth Truth, always growing into higher truths. It takes many lifetimes to develop a true disciple, as they must be strong in faith, not worldly ... mouth-spoken-faith, but Spiritual faith, being steady as a rock, never wavering when tempted by fame or worldly gain.

Now I tell of your power to receive your gifts of seeing, hearing, what your world calls clairvoyance and clairaudience, also discernment of Spirits. What I have to tell you now is very important. Many upon your Earth are now awakening to the Spirit. It is now time, and the Spirit will break through. Many are not aware of the dangers they face. All are guided to someone that can protect them, yet many fail to recognize the right path, as they, in their worldly life, are not really keeping worldly laws and can be tempted into worldly ways of spiritual growth. You say why does the Spirit of Truth break through these when they are not ready? It is now a time of great attainment, the coming of a new age. Many are very close, so are given a chance to see if they are strong enough to follow the right path. I must say that you who understand and are working for their true Spirit to come forth must hold a concept of the Power of Truth and Light revealing itself within their consciousness. Then relax and let the Holy Spirit do the work.

The awakening into the unknown can be very confusing because changes are taking place within the physical body. First strange sensations flow through your body. They are of the Spirit within. You call them vibrations. The Spirit knows it is time for an awakening. The body must change; it must become a Light in a world of darkness. The glands of the body become as windows, letting the Light of God fill the body. This is a slow process and only the Spirit knows how to regulate this progress. Mankind is always in a hurry to expand his ego. There are always ones who will lend you a helping hand in a progression through worldly exercises, decrees, and mantras; this teaching is spreading like wildfire upon the Earth today. It is, of course, a start; these worldly teachers must be blessed by the Holy Spirit. It is the mission of all those of a Higher Consciousness to intercede for them.

All teachers of Spirit have Spiritual Gifts. The difference is the way they use them. The true teacher also has great Wisdom and knows to relax and let these gifts come forth according to the Will of the Most High Power (called God) within, knowing it is not of their own physical mind or desire. Then they will receive more and more Truth and grow in Light and Love as they serve their fellowman.

Meditation

Be still and know that I am God.

When the physical mind is busy with worldly thoughts and the body is in constant motion, the energy of our I AM Presence is being scattered in all directions and you become very tired.

Many in the world are beginning to realize they need to rest more, so meditation has become popular; not performed correctly, at least it is a start.

The correct way is very simple. For those that are beginners, it is important to learn to relax the physical body. First, learn to breathe correctly. For example, breathe in through the nose, expanding the diaphragm; then, hold it as long as it's comfortable. Next, with the mouth open, release the breath slowly. Do this several times each day until you feel comfortable with it. Later, plan a time when you can be alone. The position of the body should be according to the way you feel most comfortable. Now, tense your body; then let it go. Feel as if you are falling apart. Repeat this several times. Get up, shake yourself, and go about your business. Soon you will combine these movements and the next step is not for you; it will be the Spirit within that will take over. Do not try in any physical exercise to quiet the mind. Let it be, bringing forth positive or negative thoughts. Transmute the negative. In this way you will grow into higher consciousness. You see, you are going within to find your true Self. The way within must be cleared of your misused energy before you can reach the point of the "Eye of the Storm" where all is peace and silence ... the Peace that passeth all understanding.

When you have reached this point, it is important to find as many times a day as possible to sit in Silence. Take not a worldly thought or desire within. Remember you are to, "Be still and know that I AM God"; that I know already what is best for you. I add all things, great and small, according to your need. You are an extension of Me. My Will, not your physical will, be done. Remember, I AM Love, Perfect Love, and no evil shall befall you.

As you dwell in this consciousness, you dwell in constant meditation knowing all of the trials of the physical are false; you are being perfected of body and the Christ Mind leads the way. So relax; praise the God within, and let things be.

Sensation

When the ego was perfect in consciousness, there was no sensibility. The Flame of Light was brought forth in the likeness of the Parent Flame. They were beautiful to behold. Yes ... as you would behold them now. Yet they did not know, as all was One within their world. As eternity moved on, the Flame separated into the unknown. In the beginning, the Flames were aware of their Source. There was no mind as you know it today.

The progress was slow; the Flames thought they made great strides forward; yet all the time were falling away from the Creator. The inner bodies were created by desires for self-satisfaction, gratification. The problems that occurred were the substance of the physic or lower self. The Soul took form, having the consciousness of both Good and Evil. It was the beginning of what you call mind. As it began the process of creating more thought forms, that led to the creation of a physical dense body where all could express themselves in a world of flesh, as you know it today.

The mind is a function used by man to give form to his desires. Sensations play a great part in forming habits that cause us to create Karma. Sensations can be also Spiritual as well as worldly. Mind can also be Spiritual; the process following the same patterns. Only the habits we form lead us to the God within and release us from the world.

To fantasize, or imagine, brings sensations that breed desire for worldly, also spiritual, experience to manifest within your world. They are not of the God within. The God within fulfills all desire according to your Plan of Life.

Channels

All is one ... the world that you dwell in and the world of those that have passed out of their bodies in what the world calls Death. When the Spirit that lives within the flesh body reaches the end of its allotted time on Earth, they are released from the physical body, finding they still have the consciousness, but a different body that is called Spirit. There is a change as the imperfect dense body has been left behind. It takes some quite a time to realize this. There are many great ones waiting to help them. Each one will be guided to their correct place. They must dwell with ones that have the same desires. They long to communicate with their loved ones but find the loved ones do not hear or see them. They wonder why, because they can see them. When the Spirit first leaves the body, it finds itself in the realm up above the dense world and can see many familiar places and the ones they left behind. This first realm is the home of all that are dwelling on Earth. At night as your body sleeps, you dwell there. It is like your world ... a mixture of love and hate ... good and evil. This is a world everyone has built as they, by thought, used God's power for their own will, not

God's Will.

This is the world that mediums or psychics enter into and can bring those who have passed on to their loved ones in the physical world. It is the way for some as a start, and a great blessing for some; but it must not be continued. It is not well for either the soul that has gone on, nor the one in physical form who has been left behind. Everyone must know that the love that they have had for one-another in the world will never be lost. It shall always remain, and they will be brought together in many relationships and the love will blossom regardless of the relationship. The likeness to God will be that one anchor that will hold them close no matter where they are. Whether they are in the physical world or whether they are in the Spiritual world and know they know each other. We would tell you that for those who enter in as mediums or psychics who give readings from those who have passed on, this is a very dangerous avenue to progress as there are many spirits in your world who would love to have recognition and will take over a mind or a physical body and will cause them all kind of problems. That is the reason you have always been warned, as in your Bibles. There are many spirits and they are not always good spirits.

And now we come to the part of explaining what a true vessel or channel is. As time goes on, each one grows to the point to where they can be used by the Hierarchy to be a channel of Light. In the world there must be ones who have grown through eons of time to be able to be used. You must realize that without the growth of some, the rest would not grow. If we had been left completely alone without the different ones that come to us that were the Messiahs and the different great ones that brought to the world their knowledge of what had taken place eons of time ago, you would be living in a very dark world. Also, the world would not make the progress it has made. We know that you can understand this very easily from the time that you know of as the time of Christianity when Jesus came into the world. I am sure that you understand and know that Jesus did not come for just one particular group of people. He came for all mankind, and he brought Love that opened up the minds of man into the Mind of God. This great One is the source of what we call now the Savior of the world because, in essence, that is exactly what he did. He gave information that would help you to save yourself. But the world has called him your Savior and we would not dispute that. That which has been given to those that have been prepared over many, many lifetimes are the ones today that we would call direct, true channels ... if you wish to call them channels. We do not wish to call them mediums; we do not wish to call them psychics, because they are not. They are vessels. They are being used by the God within and by that which is of the Hierarchy to give messages of Truth to the people to awaken them by the God within. Each one has a mission, and they are scattered all over your world. They, in Spirit, know each other, but in the physical they do not, and they are responsible for a certain group of students (if you wish to call them that), and the vessel that brings through the message actually has the right to be called a teacher. This teacher is receiving from the Most High, and they are very well aware that it is not of the physical mind, but is of the God-Mind that is bringing it forth. How do we begin to give that which is most interesting to people. How do they receive? There are many ways that they receive. To receive directly, where the voice box is opened completely, the one that is giving the message is very close, stands by, and you can feel their vibration through your room and through every physical body that is sitting there. They do not take over the body; they just take over the voice box and speak through it. The one that is the vessel actually sort of steps aside and allows their physical self to be used. It is not necessary that we consume the whole body; we do not have to do that. All we need to do is to consume the head and the throat ... the mouth. That's the reason your channel is raised so high so many times. It is because of the consciousness of that which is of the brain or the mind ... the brain is what holds the consciousness of the mind ... so we won't call it "brain." The mind is raised up into a very, very high degree that is in the elevation, or consciousness, of the one who is giving it, and then we speak through the mouth and, of course, it has to come from the throat; so it is throat, mouth, ears, eyes ... it is the whole body from the throat or, we would say, shoulders up. Sometimes the heart of the Channel is completely consumed and as time goes on, as the Channel becomes more pure, the body can be completely filled with the Light of the One who comes to give the message. Then it leaves immediately and the Channel is left for the body that is presently living within that body to come gently down and once more fill the body after the one bringing the message has left. Another way is to use what you call a "laser beam." We come, but do not come close, on this beam of light and it is a light of energy which is pinpointed toward the throat chakra. We speak through that as we would speak through a tube, but it is a beam of light, and that is the way we speak. Many times we give this in that manner. Whenever the Channel sees a light, then we are coming via the beam. If she doesn't see the light, but she is beeped in the ears or if the throat becomes full and the body seems that there is more than one in the body, then that is direct, and it is one of us that has come to take over the body for that length of time.,

Then there is another way that can be done, but it is not done by direct Channel. It is given by thought. We project a thought into the mind of those that are to give. These ones are growing, but they are not direct Channels yet; maybe some of them never will be. The light fills that which is their body, but it does not bring forth a vibration from their body. A thought pattern or the thoughts that come into their mind cannot give the vibrations the same as that which comes from us when we come and fill the body.

There are times that we also project their consciousness, and it appears to them as words in front of them. They can read and they can receive in this way. It is not, however, the correct way. And again I say, they may be able to grow in time. Many will do this and will work around later into something that is more useful to the world.

Those who are giving from the lower part of the psychic self are those who you call mediums and psychics that are caught up into this and do not understand and know what you happen to know of those who have had the privilege of learning; to know that you go unto God and make love to God and find the God within first and then let all that which is supposed to be given unto you come from the Spirit and let it work through you. You let God use you; you do not use God. It is very important for people to understand and know this, and it shall be taught to those; eventually they will understand.

There will be a few that will not believe it and will not want to join that part of it because it will take away their ego; it will take away their money; it will take away a lot of things they want, including worldly recognition. It will be difficult for them. There will be others who are on the verge of thoroughly understanding this but have not quite made the step over to finding the really right way.

All shall be made right before long. So, loved ones, realize and know that the beauty within the world will always come through those who have been prepared for eons of time by the Holy Spirit that is within them, and when they have learned to know and love their own God within. So let things be and do not try to be something you are not.

LOVE

I come with a message that is very close to everyone's heart. The message is Love. The Love that will not let you go is a love that comes from a very high Being of your own Self. Had you ever thought of that? It comes from the very part of you that was created by the Absolute, which we shall go into later. It is something that came forth that has always been. Alpha and Omega is Love. There is no beginning and no end; it just goes on and on and on. The Highest: that is Love. It is something that cannot be seen nor touched; it is not a "thing," but is something that grows within your own personality as you go forth.

As I have said, you are an individual that has come forth from the great central sun of Love into your Being. As you grew into the world of form, you developed a personality. This personality will take on many phases of Love. There are ones upon your Earth, my loved ones, that have the true feeling of Love. They have it, but they do not recognize where it comes from, and this must change. All that which is of the Higher Ones are trying to penetrate into all mankind at this particular time of your evolvement that Love is what Jesus taught; that you love another, and that you love that which is the very God within you. I know that you have heard this over and over, but how many of you, right now, could honestly say that you really thoroughly understand what is meant, "To love your God within?" I would say that not many of you thoroughly understand what this means. To love that which is the very God within you ... this is the highest form of Love. It is a feeling that you must allow to be in you and you do not ask many favors just because you love. I am sure you understand this. It is a feeling that you become after you come to the point of understanding and knowing who your Father-Mother God is and know that you have reached into the very high Source of yourself and have made a full acquaintance of the I AM. Love the Lord thy God; love the I AM Presence of yourself. How do you love this I AM Presence? You never take the I AM Presence name in vain. By this I mean you use it in a very positive way. Every time anyone says anything about your health, about your welfare, about anything ... when they come up to you, because it seems a natural thing upon your world for someone to come up to you and say, "How are you?", how do you respond? Learn to respond, "I am fine; I am happy; I am well, thank you." Never say a negative word after you say, "I AM." I AM is perfect. I AM is the God within. I AM is the very Soul of you; it is the very high Spirit of you; it is the very whole Being of you. Take this into consideration, my loved ones, and know that the only way that you can find perfection is to become one with this great I AM. Accept the Power; accept the beauty; accept the Love and let it flow freely in your life. Always know that this is the way that you are praising the Lord. Every single time that you say "I AM," find a beautiful word to say afterwards. If you have to say to someone that your physical body doesn't feel too well today, that is only of the physical; it is not that of the I AM. Keep that Great, Beautiful, I AM Presence within you sacred. But, beloved ones, know it; love it; love it; go forth and love it. Think about it all day long. After just a bit you will find yourself saying, "hallelujah, hallelujah, I AM Love; hallelujah, thank you I AM God-self; thank you; I love you; I praise your Name; I worship You.

My loved ones, the Light that is within the very Presence of yourself lights up your body eventually to where the Love shines forth, and it goes forth no matter who or where. Then your body takes on an altogether Essence of Love, and you just become that Love. You cannot help yourself because you are one with this great oneness; you are one with this great One. Hallelujah, hallelujah, and the Lord speaks with great Love and Light as it comes unto you with love, love, love. There is no other word that we can speak of that would explain. You yourself must have the divine feeling of this all the way through your body. My loved ones, every cell of your body must feel the great I AM Presence. Your elemental body must carry on and go forth and also know the great I AM, because the elemental body, when you are completely through with it, and you will be, will develop and go forth and have a chance to develop its own spirit and take on immortality. How wonderful it is that nothing is ever lost! Oh, what a wonderful day; what a marvelous Way of that which is of all-evolving. You see, there is nothing that is left behind. Everything has to evolve; everything has to go forth on the great avenue of Love, and that is the avenue on which we all must go, as every cell of your body must glorify that God within and you must feel this Love in every cell of your body. When you can feel this and you are alone, you just give forth the great command of Hallelujah, I AM Love; I AM my I AM Presence; and it shall be. Sooner or later the law, the Cosmic Law of Love, will let you feel a tingling within every cell of your body and, as this vibration is going through every cell of your body, it all lights up like tiny little lights and all of a sudden you are pure Light and you are pure Love. It takes time to overcome your world; it takes time. I cannot say that you are going to have it immediately. Some will have it quicker than others because they are closer to it than others might be, but do not despair; all mankind shall feel this Love.

You must persevere and go forth.

Now we come to transmuting. All of worldly creation my loved ones, must be returned to the great I AM of Love. That is the reason for the Transmuting Violet Flame.

The great Love within you is very vibrant within the soul, and it shall bring many, many things to you. Love, oh love that will not let you go is also coming from your own Higher Self unto you and all those of the world. Those of the world shall soon find out and know that great Ones of the Hierarchy will come and will walk amongst man. It is the greatness of God that is allowing this. The God that is within each one of the Hierarchy, as they go forth and glorify that Presence, allows the Hierarchy to do what they desire as long as it is to enhance that which is of the world and to better mankind. It is not for them to glorify themselves, and I am sure that you would know that those of the Hierarchy would not come into your world just to glorify themselves. They would ask that each of you know, and thoroughly find within your own heart, acceptance of many of the things that you shall hear from now on. Accept them with love. There will be many things happening and many things that you would say, "I don't know if I can accept that or not." My loved ones, go within yourself and find out, because each has a discernment within their own self. Do not accept everything; there will be events that may just be a bit odd, but you must remember that there is nothing under the sun that is phenomenal when it comes to the Power of God to perform. The only thing is the way it is performed and the reason for it. I that I Am, the great Light of Love pour into you the great commandment that has been given unto you and that is for you to love one another; that is something that everyone must learn and know, that this is great Love.

Let's understand again a bit of about Love. It is understanding, a spiritual love coming into your physical mind. You must understand one another and know that you have been down that path before and what you see in someone whom you are having a problem with is a reflection of your own problem. So, learn to transmute these things instead of getting excited and causing more grief unto yourself. Love always comes back as Love, and that which is negative always comes back negative until it is transmuted.

Loved ones, go forth and know that all things shall come about. Many of the Hierarchy will make an appearance into your world and all things shall come about in a natural way. You should also know that those of the great Ones who are coming into the world will not cause great phenomenal things to happen. They will do things in a silent way; a way that is Love and it will not be done with a great big show because this is not the way they work. Everyone has free will and they will not force anything of a phenomenal show upon anyone at all. It is from the desire that is within their own hearts. How can we penetrate Love and the desire to have love of the Great I AM Presence? We cannot force something upon anyone; nor will we try to. This Light must come and they must accept it or else they will go and come back again in another third dimensional world. After all, what difference does that make? It is not all that great a disaster when you stop to think of it, because they will have plenty of time since there is all eternity. The only thing that they wish now is for the many that are on the verge of going and being great Divine beings to go on into the greater Light; this is what they are trying to help those to do. They are not really too concerned about those that have a long life yet to live in the three dimensional world because they will give them what they can and they will be raised up according to that which they can receive. But we are protecting mostly, and thinking mostly of those that are really and truly ready to go on. These are the ones that we are concentrating on. Love, Love that just will not let me go; that which is of God shall be performed because all of us on the other realm love, love so much, and we have this Light within us that just pushes us forward. I cannot say why we do it, we just do.

My loved ones, that is what you must learn in your world; you must learn to love. There must be a feeling of oneness between all of the world.

Wherever you go, the minute you step your foot into a group of people find yourself saying, "I love these people; I love every one and I call for the law of Love and forgiveness if there is someone here that I do not care about. I want to transmute this all into pure Light and send it back to that which is my great I AM through the power of the great Violet Flame." Amen, Amen, Amen.

U.F.O.'s

The Universe is the home of a vast number of creations. Some are very wise knowing how to use the Supreme Energy for their own betterment, being fully aware of their Source. They have bodies according to their needs. Some appear in whatever form suits their purpose. They have the Power to help each other, going from one planet to another. The Earth, being the cause and effect world, is a mixture of souls that can cause great disasters to themselves as well as to the whole Universe. All U.F.O.'s are friendly, although they seem not to be as many come from planets so far from Earth they just do not understand Earth people and their own ways. So, they are very curious and, in their eagerness, they appear to want to harm those they have contacted.

The ones that are closest to the Earth are more familiar with Earth people and their ways. They are here to help save the planet. They are creatures of high consciousness. Many are of the Great White Brotherhood, knowing how to use the flow of Cosmic Energy for the betterment of their world. They are living the Word ... go unto God; know your Source; and all things (wisdom) will be added unto you. They have compassion for all Earth people for they remember their struggles to overcome the cause and effect world. Many upon the Earth accept beings from outer space as friends and not enemies. Then there are those with very closed minds that feel U.F.O.'s are a figment of the "image-power" of the mind.

Lighten your hearts and lighten your minds, and know the time is soon, and that which is of the world will be consumed if your Earth goes on in the same way that it is going at this present time. But I have some good news: I will not keep you in suspense. The time is coming very soon when things will happen that you have no idea of. But loved ones, know that each one shall be saved that has earned the right to be saved and has the acquaintance with the riches of their own higher Self and the acceptance of what they already are, my loved ones. You do not have to worry one iota at all because it will come about in a natural way. You shall be taken in a way that you shall not have any fear at all. The world is not going to see many more years. There are things on the Earth that must change. We cannot allow things on the Earth that must change. We cannot allow things to go on where someone may push from the bottom. So we will have to eliminate many people from your Earth. They will be taken in many ways. Do not be concerned when you hear of crashes ... of airplane accidents ... of all kinds of so-called disasters. They are not the disasters that would also come upon your Earth in a way that it would be a "mass disaster."  We are to eliminate many people in many ways to prevent it from happening all at once. ***

My loved ones, do not look at any of this as a disaster.  We manipulate ... maybe an airplane ... so that it comes down and everyone on board would lose their physical body, but do not be concerned because the spirit bodies can go very quickly to another place where they will be taken care of and all is well.  They are where they deserve to be. The one with the higher Wisdom will be the teachers. Some will be taken by Laser Beams to cities that have prepared for them, each performing their own mission. (Jesus said, "In my father's house are many mansions; I go to prepare a place for you.") Others will remain on Earth, having the Power to come and go ... also the Power to receive guidance and to precipitate the needs of lesser souls. You will be surprised really how much you have attained. Those upon your Earth that presently feel they do not remember what they have learned and feel they are unable to give forth anything will find themselves speaking in many tongues and in many ways; and it will be coming from a higher Source. It is going to be something like a miracle and will happen to those who are ready to give forth help to those who need it. There will be three lift off's, each according to the consciousness of each group. Those who will not believe in a Source higher than their own worldly mind will have to suffer the fire and agony when the Earth rids herself of all misused energy that she has given a home to. Remember, the physical can be destroyed, but not the Spirit. The Spirits that lose their physical bodies will also find a new home where they will have another chance. My loved ones, just picture it! It's going to be really fantastic if you would look at it in our way of looking at it. This world has to grow; there has to be a certain time of ... we would say "disaster?" of "shaking up?"; something to bring forth that which is Good! Sometimes you have to go through something that is not quite so pleasant to get to that which is joyful and happy. Then, beloved ones, after the Earth has settled down into a new world, you will all be brought back and you will have the opportunity to rebuild a new world in the new dimension to where it is to be. Then all will be happy. All will be working in exactly the same way through the Love Rays of the Most High.

 Transcriber's Note: I do not believe that this portion was properly interpreted. In so far as these "accidents" are concerned, I feel as the planet (Earth) moves deeper into the transition, geomagnetic phenomena will increasingly become chaotic. This in turn, will have a negative effect upon computer/mechanical guidance apparatus of various transportation systems. Floods, Gigantic Storm systems, Earth quakes and Tidal Waves will account for many of those who have agreed to be at this point in the ongoingness for "personal" cleansing. Others, will simply travel via the means provided, to other places while the more intense changes occur. This could take many years as one would reckon in third dimensional terms. Still others will shuttle between these other places and the Earth as well as shuttling via the provided means from one Earthly location to another.

Energy

You are a being of Light. Your Power House is the I AM Presence. The Spirit and the Light are one.

When you are funding from a worldly consciousness ... glorifying yourself, at the end of each day you have used up the allowed amount for that period of time. That is why you must sleep. The body must be made ready for another day. When the time is right an awakening comes upon you. Slowly you begin to learn to use this energy for the important events of life. As you start the climb up the spiritual Mountain of Overcoming, you become aware of the energy field around those you come in contact with and of your own energy field which has many names ... Spirit, Light, God-Power, Energy, Life Aura, etc. At times you will very tired and it is not because of physical work or play. Some will say some entity is sapping your strength and this and this could be so; also many of worldly consciousness ... especially the sick or elderly ... will draw from your energy. Also lower spirits in the spirit world can draw from your energy. So, you must learn to close your door (so to speak) to the world. This can be done by thought or out loud (as this), "I close the door of my solar Plexus to all negative vibrations. Thank You Holy Spirit."

Always thank the Holy Spirit, because it is the one that is doing what you ask.

The more you transmute your misused energy, the more Wisdom you receive along with a knowing that Power of God within all things. The more you praise and love this Power, the more protection and guidance you have. Each step up the mountain brings a greater feeling of Peace. I will digress a bit. The transmuting of misused energy seems not to be understood by many. How do you know if you really have transmuted it? If the emotion or habit still remains, you have not really wanted to be free from the emotion or habit so you did not transmute with deep feeling. Many think they want to be released from emotions and habits, but because it has been a part of their being for so many lifetimes the subconscious mind is reluctant to release the thought forms. Transmute with deep, strong feeling ... a crying from deep within.

Remember also, transmuting must not just be done to have a better life; it is to grow closer to your God within; to be of great use as an instrument or vessel for the God Power to flow into the world. Now this brings me to the reason why many among you who have attained a higher level of wisdom have times when you seem to be very tired and need much rest (it just seems so to those who do not know the reason). You are ones who have transmuted the lower bodies into light and now can use them to travel in to do the work of the God within in a spiritual way as your physical body remains resting or asleep.

The way to God is Love; The way to Love is humility. Know thy Self and be free.

Relax and go within; be raised into the consciousness of the most High. My loved ones of love, encounter that which is of the most High and feel the presence of those that come nigh. They come with one thought in mind ... to give Love and Light ... to give a promise that all things are divine; the promise that there is another life that is so important. They come to awaken the lower consciousness of man. They comprehend the great Wisdom of the world. Oh, there is Wisdom you know nothing of. There are many things that you know nothing of, but do not be discouraged, my loved ones; hold fast to the Truth that is within you now and let things be, growing gradually into all that is within you. It is most important, loved ones, that you take it slowly, and it is so important that you of the world with the physical body and the physical consciousness step aside and let the Spirit within do the work. Do not push from worldly way, giving forth desires into decrees and affirmations and living the spiritual life in a physical way. I know I do not have to mention unto you the ways because I'm sure you're all aware of what I speak. When the Spirit of Love within you awakens you, my loved ones, it is done gently, keeping you in balance, knowing all things in a better way. It is like the parent that really knows what the child needs. But, of course, in your world the child will willfully go his own way and will not listen to the parent who has wisdom ... most of the time. And, of course this is the way they are to learn; by their mistakes. That is the reason that We of our realm do not give out certain kinds of messages. I could tell each one of you certain little things that would help you not walk through something and you could bypass it. But, my loved ones, that is not the way we of the Hierarchy work. Things are shown unto you by Spirit which you are to transmute; they are mostly given in visions and dreams. Those are the past that will manifest in your physical body if they have not been transmuted with deep, deep feeling. These things are important. Of course in every day life when you meet someone and there is an emotion, a misunderstanding, you yourself have a problem. Speak not unto the other person, but realize that the problem lies within yourself. Then, with great feeling, at sometime during the day ... I would say at some time when you can relax and you are about to go to sleep you can remember the events of the day and how you felt about a certain person ...

irregardless of whether you meet the person in a physical way or you have contact with them as you are driving your car. Relax, and here again the deeper the feeling when you transmute, the more sure the knowledge that it has been done. If by chance you feel that you have transmuted and transmuted and it is still holding on, you must realize that you yourself have just casually, not with very deep feeling, transmuted it. There are those who, because of lifetime after lifetime, have something so deep-seated within them that they do not really and truly want to give up that which has created the misused energy. It is difficult to give up the world, to give up the habits and the things they have formed over eons of time. So you wonder and you do not transmute with deep, deep desire ... just a casual little transmuting of each day of this way or that way or whatever, but don't do it the way it is supposed to be done with the deep feeling that must go back into eons of time within your own self. When it is done from the heart ... or we would say from a great feeling or a gut feeling of great strong desire, you will know now it is done and I have sent it back and it does not belong to me anymore, and the misused energy has been put into the Violet Flame and now it is transmuted into pure Light and it has been sent back to my higher Self to be reused for the good of mankind and not myself. Lo and Behold! You feel a feeling of freedom and you can walk your Earth without fear of this or that; you are another step into the consciousness of perfection, but this must be taken very seriously and not playfully. It is something that has to go deep because all of these things are within the subconscious mind which you have created over lifetime after lifetime. Some are very deep seated because this is the time that this has been given out to give you this help and you have not had this help before. It is only now that this has been allowed because of all the going forth into a new dimension to help those that must go on this time and do not overcome and dilly-dally along with life. I want to make all of this very clear. I'm sure there are many things that have not been thoroughly clear on this subject. There are many inside things regarding all this and time will help you as you go on. Things will be revealed unto you ... the Wisdom will be inside of you. I myself will fill you with Light and Love. I will pour the Wisdom into your consciousness. I do not always have to come through My channel or through the writing that I will give so that you will have what I wish to teach. I can penetrate into your mind as it comes and the questions that you ask. Ask your questions silently within your mind. Let the Spirit of God within you do the work because that is what you are learning to do. Do not always depend upon someone else. When the time comes and it is needed that you have to know this or that, you must be prepared to hear it within your own self. That is what you must learn ... to have the desire and to let it be. It will be given unto you. There is a certain Wisdom about all of this that will come. The Holy Spirit answers the questions within because this is Wisdom and it comes to those that will contemplate, and realize, and know that you have all the answers within you.

Suicide

Life is Soul dwelling within a physical form. The Soul is born into the world to learn the Law of Cause and Effect. People create all of the problems they are confronted with on Earth.

Soon after death all are shown their past; it is like watching a movie in your world, only the main actor is your own thought form, not your true, pure thought-form created from the Absolute. As your past unfolds in front of you, there are varied experiences. You see yourself as you truly are, either good or evil; nothing is covered up. Some feel they can get away with all kinds of deceit. Yes, to some of your friends and acquaintances, but not to yourself. All is recorded within your lower soul just as it happened, word for word, deed for deed. As you view your past, great emotions of grief, also of joy fill your consciousness. There is always (unknown to you at the time) your Christself radiating Love, bringing the desire to do better. There is also your teacher and guides that understand you, having great compassion and desire to show you the Way. You are given a choice; do you want to stay close to Earth to be close to those you love, or do you wish to follow the guidance of your teacher and guides and go to school until you are ready to incarnate again? Following your teacher and guides is the only way you can progress into the consciousness of your own I AM Presence. All is up to you, for you have free will. When you and your teacher feel you are ready, you are presented to the Karmic Board. Past debts are viewed, lessons in the Spirit School tested, all things taken into consideration. You are advised by the karmic Board how much misused Energy you are to overcome in the next life. Many feel they can overcome more than the Karmic Board feels is right; because of free will they choose too heavy a burden. Since they are living a worldly life, burdened by their heavy load, remembering nothing of their Spirit's schooling, they feel death is the way out. So, by their own hand ... also their own mind ... many bring about their own death by their own death-wish. You say how can this be when you are taught that all are given a time to be born and a time to die? Yes, that is so; that is the Divine Plan as the overcoming of worldly self is a long progressive course. You must realize the negative power is very strong, so if you live in self pity your lower self will respond to the death wish.

All that respond to this death wish and destroy the physical vehicle (body) pass out with the problems still unsolved, with more Earth life yet to live. All that come to Earth are given a certain length of time to accomplish their mission, whatever it may be. So, they must dwell in limbo with their misused energy which appears as fog ... some very dense ... according to the Karma it contains. They, with their own will, have now created more Karma by killing the body and no one can help them until their life span is over. Then their burden is greater next time.

Everyone that has lived a worldly life has passed through the door of suicide.

As eternal Life continues, and they have been raised in consciousness and have a "knowing" (though not "why"), they can be helped to continue their life.
Those with awareness of the Holy Spirit are being used to help those of lower consciousness to remain in their bodies. The Spirit of one in distress appears to the "universal Lovers" of all creation and are guided and helped to live their allotted time.

LOVE

Oh, Father-Mother God
How sacred Thy Name.
Thy kingdom is within me God
As I join the outer mind with Thee.

I give no thought to daily Bread,
Only live in pure will of Thee.

I live each day with the Violet Flame,
Being redeemed as it unfolds.

I walk the path of right-use-ness;
Right-use-ness, giving no power unto evil.

This I AM, all Honor and Glory.

PEACE

1. Yes, Lord, I feel your hand; only you keepst me from want.
2. You bring me to rest, that I might receive from the Life-giving waters that flow.
3. You purify my soul; you lead me in the path of right-use-ness for your sake.
4. Although I walk in the shadows of thought, Light casts out fear, for Thy Love is with me. Thy servers of Truth, they comfort me.
5. You lead me to my table of forgiveness; your Power comes upon me. My cup runneth over, my soul is at peace.
6. Only your use-ness and mercy shall be utmost, as I go forth in your Name, bringing Love that all may live in Glory forever-more.

DISCOURSE NO. 1

The power of God ... the love of God ... is your very Being; that is your heritage. The Divine Light shines from that Source. It is called your Christ-

Self. Oh, children of Earth, woe be unto you, as this power that you have defiled, living the way of death. But, behold; I bring you good tidings and reason to sing with great joy. Let those that will listen hear of which I write. The story is old, but yet new. All through the eternity of the third-dimension-world of cause and effect someone has come with a message to teach man the ways of truth. Man has always been deep into the ways of self-destruction. You that read your book called the Bible know the fate of mankind in the time of Noah ... the time of Moses; the greatest event was when Jesus the Christ came to show man the error of his ways and to teach him how to have everlasting life. Again and again Jesus' words have been altered to suit man's worldly desires. There are many truths in your Bible, but they must be interpreted to everyone by their Christ-Self. The time is coming, as man experiences the disasters occurring upon the Earth, when he will seek for answers as to why. He will not be satisfied with the reasons given by science. There are many awakened priests and ministers who will become afraid to hold back the truth, and they shall bring it forth. The time is fast upon you when there will be many to teach; so be prepared.

How do I prepare, you ask? Desire to know the truth from within yourself. The Holy Spirit dwells within every physical being on the face of your Earth. The truth is given according to your consciousness. Your consciousness (meaning state of belief) is according to your past lives, being the sum total of all you have ever been, good or evil, as you have always come to Earth to overcome your evil. And as you live through your karma gracefully, your consciousness is raised and you are nearer to your Christ-Self; then the truth you have known in the past takes on a higher meaning. Truth has many facets; it is likened unto jewels ... the diamond of Truth gives forth great Light from the Soul which has attained it. Silver and gold, precious metal from the alchemist's bench (Spirit of God) within brings Wisdom to unfold to help all that will hear and abide. As you desire from your heart the highest truth you are ready to accept, letting all be God's will, the Spirit within will lead you to One that has passed through the fires of the Alchemist and can bring forth that which is for you. This is now the time of awakening, the Aquarian age, when all truth will be given to those that will listen and heed the Word from Emanuel, the God within you.

Life does not stand still; all is in motion; the Earth is moving very fast into a higher place in the Galaxy. The action cannot be stopped; it will evolve regardless of mankind. Are you ready to go with it, leaving behind worldly pleasures of flesh? If you are, then listen with ears tuned into Spirit. Live from within out, letting the Spirit of God refine you, making you ready to receive the wedding of the flesh to the Spirit of the Absolute. Bless all that hear and abide.

Discourse No. 2

In the beginning of human life on the Planet Earth, man lived completely in the Light spoken by the Word of a Power we call God. They never questioned from whence it came; they just were obedient to the Word. The Source supplied all their needs ... the garden of Eden is not a place, but a consciousness. Now, I say unto you, you can dwell right now in your own Garden of Eden; it all depends on you. All things are within the beholder; that is true of all mankind. The problem is that so many do not want to behold for themselves; they depend on those with worldly minds to lead them. This is the blind leading the blind. There are ones that have been chosen and ordained by the Holy God to serve Earth in physical bodies. Many are called but few are chosen as they have the faith and strength of the Christ to carry out their missions, regardless of interference. They are taught by Spirit, shown by Spirit, and given "Gifts" to help them carry forth their mission. Many are given lesser missions as all must start sometime. It is like going to school in your world; you must realize the more you learn, the more there is yet to learn. Keep the door of your mind open to receive Higher Teachings (Truths). Be a beholder of those that live in their Garden of Eden, a truly spiritual way. Worship not the physical beings; you can discern and behold the true chosen to bring forth the Word. They do not draw attention to themselves nor create organizations. They are just simple, humble vessels of love. They bring forth Wisdom, Peace, Joy, and the greatest Gift, Love of all things great and small.

The mighty Power of the I AM Presence comes as pure Substance of nothingness ... how can this be? The consciousness of man has to have something to behold with his five senses; so, the nothingness becomes substance. The purity becomes impure as man uses this mighty Power to build his own world. All must become aware that the world they have built is an illusion and will fall around their feet. The city-four-square is not of the third-dimensional world. It is the dwelling place of pure Spirit within each soul where consciousness is supreme, Divine Wisdom being with all, all with One.

Now is the time of great awareness being given to the world by those of great wisdom. It will be poured down in many ways. Many are awakened by great disasters. The search begins when they begin to realize they have done all they can and need help from a higher Source. Those of higher awareness are being prepared to awaken the sleeping world, as all must be made aware. Even if they will not listen, we must keep trying, and our love will hold them close, and they all shall give up and listen.

Blessed will be the day of days when all will praise their God within and all are one in the Absolute. Peace, oh perfect Peace, the heavenly bells have rung.

DISCOURSE NO. 3

The Gifts of the Spirit, how precious they are; use them with reverence. Gifts are given to those who have earned them, living through many hardships. In spite of physical manifestations of Karma, they held on to their love for their Creator. When they are ready, the Karmic Board helps them to choose their path which will fulfill their mission at the right time, in the correct way.

As each one is given a mission for the awakening of mankind, their Gifts must be according to their own consciousness and those they will manifest unto. Each one is blessed by the Holy Spirit, sent forth into the world of form. It is a great temptation (when the world is hungry for someone to live their life for them) to use the Gifts for your own greatness rather than to glorify God (the Creator). The world, at the present time, has many that are thinking only of self, but regardless of this they are opening the door of the spirit world. Those that are ready for higher teachings will drift away and desire something higher. When they are ready the Spirit Teachers within will guide them to worldly teachers. All worldly teachers have certain ones to awaken. They are drawn together for many reasons. Some have been together as teacher and student in past lives and are now picking up where they left off.

Now is the time of awakening; all must realize they are the vehicle made manifest for the Spirit to dwell within; it is the Spirit that doeth the work. Jesus called it "Father." As I have explained before, there are seven bodies, each with their own consciousness that manifest through the physical form. Since they are all of Spirit form, not seen with physical eyes, many are not aware they are bringing forth from imperfect consciousness which they have created themselves. That is why it is so important to transmute all misused energy. You have been told to go to God and all shall be added unto you. Love thy God with all your heart, mind, and soul and love your neighbor as yourself. This is the key that will open the door of your consciousness and bring forth dreams and visions that will reveal your past, allowing you to wipe out your transgressions against your Creator. You are not shown past lives to glorify your ego. All is shown in symbols so as not to cause you emotional stress, as the Spirit will not cause emotion upon emotion. When you have grown to be humble and love all of God's creations, (even though you still have misused energy to transmute and also Karma to live through), the Karmic Board of Hierarchy will test you in many ways. If you prove worthy, you will come into a lifetime with a certain mission to perform, with spiritual gifts to help you. It is instilled within your consciousness that you must let the Spirit of the Christ-Self come forth as spokesman and not from physical mind or lower spirit mind. You must wait upon the Lord as Jesus said. When the time is right, you will have a spiritual experience you will never forget. You will be well aware it is not of your physical mind, as you will know you are only the vessel and you are aware of listening to the message, as are the ones around you. You of yourself know not what the next word is to be.

We of the Hierarchy use many vessels as the Word must be revealed to the world. We prefer those with limited worldly education, for the messages must be simple and not cluttered with fancy words and phrases. You understand we give many messages by thought. If the channel has a large vocabulary and thinks with a worldly educated mind, the message will come forth as he thinks. That is why my messages given to many sound so different.

Discourse No. 4

Mankind will have to awaken to the Spirit of Truth within his own consciousness before he will move forward into the new age. All life on Earth will be made new; the negative thoughts of cause and effect will be no more.

Now is the time of great change. The greatness of a higher source than the mind of man must be awakened to reveal to him the Source of the "allness" of Life. Let the Power of the Absolute fill your mind with love for all life. As the manifestation of this love expands, Wisdom from within is revealed.

Now is the time for those that love the Lord God Jesus to know the truth of his words. Men in "high places" have used Jesus' words to suit their own worldly mind in order to control those that seek for Truth. Do not condemn them; they must be awakened to realize the error of their ways. Ask the Holy Spirit to administer unto them for they are Children of God. Do unto them as you also have had someone do you, as all that dwell in the upper room of their consciousness have been all things. Ask the Holy Spirit to bless all those that dwell in lowly places. Many lessons must be learned as you pass through the worldly schoolroom. Unto your world of duality will come Great Beings that will shed great Light. They will come from great planets, far and near. All are very concerned about the Planet Earth ... not only as to the effect the future will have on all the Galaxy, but they possess great love that will help the awakening of Earthman.

Life, which is the Essence of the Absolute, is very precious and must be revered, honored, worshipped, and adored. Submitting yourself to this great Power, you become One with It. It has many names ... the greatest of these is I AM That I AM.

Give thought to the Spirit; relax in the peace it brings; all frustrations of the world will then pass away and you live in a new day. Finding God within releases you from the carnal mind. Blessed you will be, living in a physical form filled with perfect light,

being one with the I AM Presence, living in the world but not of it. When this takes place, you have become Christed as was Jesus, and as he said, you can do all the things that I do and more also. What a wonderful reward to receive for searching within and leaving the world to its own. No man of the world could bestow such a reward. The blessings are endless and Life is eternal.

Discourse No. 5

When the Earth moves into its new orbit, all will be made new. All souls that have overcome cause and effect will dwell upon it, living in a world of higher consciousness. They will manifest new ways of life, knowing all power comes from a Source within their own consciousness, and then blessings will flow. Living God's Will brings new meaning, also more power to the Word of God made manifest (clear): all things great and small created from Light, brought forth to give meaning to their state of existence. When united with the great Light of God, you see God, face-to-face and realize your Being as One. Again and again I say, "ye are God's, " as Jesus said of old.

Relax in the Word which was, "let there be Light"; all was created from this Essence which was brought forth from a Soul that had reached into the Absolute and formed the pattern for a new world, the Substance being of thought held together by Silent Watchers, created for the process and growth of new root races.

You of the world, at this time of evolution, have traveled the worldly road for more years than you can comprehend. The time is now, as your world will no longer be the home of cause and effect; it will be made new and be the home for those that have overcome their Karma and have found their God within. You that are awakened living in the world as of now, have a great responsibility to your fellow man. Now is a special time in what man calls "history." Soon we of the Hierarchy will release more Power to those that are ready and we can trust. The Power will open their spiritual centers so we can work through them. If they are still bound to the world because of Karma, we will release it if we find them worthy, letting God's work for others come before their own. They must learn the law, "God's will be done," turning all problems over to the Holy Spirit, releasing them to be channels for us to help save as many of God's children as we can. Relax in our Love; all have much to gain.

Discourse No. 6

Many things have been told unto you in many forms. Each given unto you because of the different consciousness of each one. As we sit with you, us in our spiritual bodies and you in your physical bodies, there is a time of very closeness. There is a time for meditation in silence. There is a time when we Speak unto you through our channel, and there is a time that you read what has been given from a high Source through each of you to raise your consciousness in a way that is to be ... everyone being led by the Spirit within to understand what they are to understand, and to gleam in the way that they are suppose to gleam. The more you can be in a silent, receiving mood, the more you will receive, and you will gain that wisdom which you are supposed to receive. When there is confusion of any kind within your room, it disturbs the vibration, and those that need sometimes do not hear, or have not even received it into their inner self because of the vibration which has not been the true message to their consciousness by way of their ears. That is the reason we would like to say, as you gather together, it is most important that everyone come (when you come into the sanctuary to be with us) in a meditative mood; that you have sung and have received your spiritual music. From then on keep silent, mostly reading, not questioning. Don't ask questions. Let the Spirit reveal it within your own self. Each one is going to receive it according to the way they can understand. If they do not understand and need a little outside help, let them find a way to speak to someone privately and have the opportunity that we would like to bring it through our channel to those who do not understand to clear up some things and do it in private rather than trying to do it within the class where each one is talking and confusion is going on. I am just telling this to you to let all of you understand thoroughly.

You cannot be receptive to your own Spirit within your own self when you are involved in other things. Do not expect to read and explain what you are reading. Just listen, absorb, and that which is for you shall be within you. The less physical words said, the better.

Discourse No. 7

I come into thee, the Light of God cometh within thy hearts and the Almighty of that which is of your Holy Self is becoming known unto you. Realize that which is of the Most High must filter down through your lower body and it shall make you pure. The Light of God never fails. Within each one comes forth the Holy Spirit of Light which never fails and it is all powerful, all Divine. This Light opens the higher consciousness of your being, and as you apply it to yourself, the knowing of the Most High comes within your mind. It shall be revealed unto you that which is for you from the Holy Light of God holds forth the promise that is given unto you at the time of your creation, and all things shall be made perfect. Unto thee I bring the Light of God so that we are all one; the oneness of God as we approach the time of overcoming of the world. Relax, my loved ones, in this Love and know that only that which is of God will perform within your life, so be it. Affirm this over and over again in your life. And those that bring forth and wish to be perfect channels of Love and Light, this must be made your constant prayer; their constant vigil that all that which is within their own self comes from the Most High of your God Consciousness. Then you shall grow higher and higher each time because you have kept the Door of Light open and can go forth unto the very I AM of yourself and bring forth from the Christ-Self of your own being, going forth into all Eternity, Love and God as I give it unto you. The Light that shineth within each one shall progress and progress and grow lighter and lighter, brighter. You shall attract many unto you and have the pleasure of teaching them to gleam.

Discourse No. 8

That which is within your own self has gleamed many, many thousands of years, and as we have brought this memory unto you and have awakened the Spirit within, that which is of the physical mind must be awakened also. So the Love Light that shineth within your own self is always bringing something unto you. Now, as the Light of God goes forth and we follow it up and up into the highest realm of that which you may be able to comprehend and that which we want you to comprehend, we find ourselves in a place where it is all complete silence; we find ourselves in what we would call the Absolute ... something where you must know that you must comprehend it and understand it ... that it is a silence. It is the deep silence within you where you feel nothing; you hear nothing; you see nothing; you are nothing; you just find that you know that you

that you are the vibration of Love. You are the vibration of Light. It is a very peculiar feeling to those who have not thoroughly gone into it or experienced it for eons of time. So you must get used to this feeling of awesomeness. It is a feeling and it cannot be explained. You must each one experience your own feeling. As we enter into it, I shall speak. It will not detract from that which you are to experience. Let us soar like a bird, going up and up, feeling free, leaving everything behind. Oh, to be free ... the freedom that we feel. We soar all over the Earth. We look down on it with eyes of compassionate Love. Within our hearts we feel an awesomeness that sometimes comes out in the words, "Why me?" As we go forth into this awesome wonderment, we soon leave what we call the atmosphere of the world. We are leaving the consciousness of the world, my loved ones, and we very soon find ourselves seated upon a beautiful cloud. We look all about and see the infinite, which is nothing. It goes on forever and ever and ever, and as things go on forever we see a light grow stronger and stronger. The Power seems to come forth with an Essence that is drawing us more and more into this great, great feeling of Love. I call it Love; yes, that I would say unto you. Have a feeling of what it is, and do not let the world confuse you. You are surrounded completely. You are surrounded with vibrations which you have not felt before. Your very soul is lifted; you are no longer a part of Earth; you are free; you are one with the Universe; all things are One Power. You are now feeling you could extend your eyes into all that which is to be and all that has been, and all that is, but yet not to be part of it. You are free. You may extend the Power that you have into any direction that you wish. From this vantage point there are many Gifts that are given unto you, and as the Gifts are bestowed, they become manifested within the physical body, and then you will know, my loved ones, from whence you come and whence you go. Never again will you feel that the physical mind has control. You will know definitely within your physical mind, the physical part of you, who you are. The glorious feeling of this oneness ... of this great Power ... has penetrated into every cell of your being and as it comes completely within, it envelopes all things.

When you come back into the world, you will look at the world with Power ... eyes of Love, and from this point, as the Gifts I bestow, you begin to use them and you know exactly who is doing the work. From here on, my loved ones, if you do anything what-so-ever to glorify yourself, you shall be responsible for all things and you will have to pay in a way that would make you very unhappy, for you will have forgotten that which you have learned this day.

The Glowing of that which is of the Most High, oh, the glory of it. The expression of it all. The Love Light of it all. The awesomeness of it all. Linger long, my loved ones, at some time each day in your physical world to make this connection, once again to get it firmly into your being. You have lived so many lifetimes from outside yourself that it takes time for you to realize how great you really are within; and when you travel within you are free. You are as a dove; you are free. You come and go as you sit in meditation, realizing and knowing that the minute your mind goes to one particular place, the Spirit within is ready to go. So whenever you think of someone and you want to help them, know that the Spirit within knows what to do and how to do it.

As I have taken you on this journey of awesome wonder, I would implore each one to let it all manifest as it will on the physical. Do not feel just because you have had this experience this day and have heard my words that you can go out right now and do all things. You are being prepared, my loved ones, and this is part of the preparation, for that which is within you has to open to receive all that the Father has for you. Every so often we give this kind of experience to you to open you to the Higher consciousness within yourself, to open the Door to where the Gifts of the Spirit may flow freely into each one. As I have promised unto you, I gave that which is of Love and said that I would speak of the Absolute, and I have spoken. I have given this instruction. You must comprehend it well and know that all things come unto those who Love the God within. Praise God from who all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below; praise Him, Oh Heavenly Host of Heaven, praise Him; and we praise all that which is of the Holy Spirit of Love and Light. Hallelujah, hallelujah, I speak unto thee with the highest of Love.

Discourse No. 9

The coming of the New Age is upon the whole Universe, all moving to bring forth great Truths. How blessed we are! Long has been the struggle, but what a great reward. Great rejoicing should be within your heart, just reflecting upon the knowing of the peace that will consume all the ones that have overcome the carnal mind. You that are reaching the mountain top must be very humble and walk your way with song and praise, giving wholly of your life to those that "know not what they do." Silent compassion, speaking as the Spirit dictates, will help them to want to find a better way of life. There are many that are ready right now to receive the Truth. They have drawn away from the churches, as they realize their teachings do not resemble the teachings of Jesus, to "Love thy neighbor as thyself, do unto others as you would have them also do unto you." Blessed words of Jesus. Yes, blessed indeed. Within a short time a change will take place as the vibration of Love is getting stronger and stronger. The power of Satan throughout your world will perish by the Power of God. The Power released from the mass of Jesus' worshippers is spreading all over the world.

Although they do not know the higher Truth they are sincere in their belief. Their leaders are the ones that are creating great Karma for themselves. Condemn them not, lest you be condemned. Ask the Holy Spirit to bless them. It may seem the world is being consumed by evil because of the disastrous circumstances that are occurring in your world today. I say, how else can the evil be overcome if not erupting, releasing from the Earth the evil of man. All in physical form will pay their debts as all Life, regardless of form, is the essence of the Absolute. The human form is the highest living within your world and is responsible for all lesser forms. Man was given dominion over all the Earth. He has wrongfully used this Divine Gift and must pay in like manner. As the Power of Love within all man, It silently watches over man, not interfering with his free will; just releasing Love and more Love until the crystallization of worldly thought forms are destroyed. This action takes a great space of worldly time, so it is necessary for the soul to take on a physical form that it has chosen so as to overcome its misused energy and again become one with the Divine Source having dominion over all.

Discourse NO. 10

Christ within unfolds when the carnal mind gives up the belief in the facts of the world. Let me say again "A fact has a beginning and an end; Truth has no beginning and no end. ALL must learn the difference and remain faithful to the Christ within that brings Wisdom which is Truth that lives within, teaching the physical mind truths that have been forgotten. Let all mankind behold unto themselves, as each must be responsible for their transgressions. All created by man which glorify self will be destroyed. All created by the Power of God to glorify God will dwell through all Eternity. Let those that have ears, hear. Be silent. God speaks, you know where or when. The Word of God has always been within. All life in physical form shall hear the Voice, each in their own way and time. How blessed the awakening as each soul is released from their own creation which has bound them to the creation of others of like thought, which always brings disaster. Blessings must be upon them. Since all have free will, we of the Hierarchy must wait until they ask for help. There are always those of high consciousness abiding on the Earth that can intercede for them, asking the Holy Spirit to care for them each to their own need. Remember it is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, that doeth the work. Blessings are upon all mankind, but behold I say, they have closed the door. Yet God has not forsaken them. Love, Eternal Love that will not let you go, is the key that will open the Door, revealing a new path, a new beginning. How wonderful it is to behold a soul returning home to the Power of Eternal Love. Angels sing their Blessings, bringing Love to all.

Discourse No. 11

Let Me say, "as above, so below." Mighty is the Power of God flowing, everywhere equally present, upon your Earth, each soul receiving according to their understanding and needs. All souls are precious in the sight of God. Look not upon their worldly deeds, as deeds are only of cause and effect. Each soul came to the Earth to learn that God is within; it is the very breath of man. Mankind has created their own world; many have not learned the difference between right and wrong. Jesus said, "Bless them Father, for they know not what they do." As man awakens he is answerable for his deeds only according to his awakening. At the end of each lifetime all cause and effect is left on Earth, to be endured again when they reincarnate. While dwelling in the Spirit world they go to school, are shown their misdeeds, and are given their choice of karma for the next lifetime. Progress of a soul is slow; the problems mount up, as they overcome some, they create more, yet all progress in some manner. Making the journey back to God is very difficult, but rewarding. When the soul realizes that worldly efforts are in vain and seeks help, this is the time to "ask and ye shall receive," also, "thy will, Oh God, not mine, be done." When you speak those words coming from your heart, not just your lips, Love flows and opens the Door to God. No more do you have to ask for anything; God knows your every need. As you keep the Door of Love open by sending Love, Praise and Thankfulness for all the things great and small, you receive Gifts that have already been prepared for you.

Also I say unto you, things of the world will no longer be of great importance. Happiness is now found within. Peace has set you free; no more can the turmoil of the world upset you. Love abides and you Love all with unending compassion. By your fruits you shall be known. Be humble, although you reach the High Mountain, you abide yet in physical form, being in the world but not of it. The promise Jesus gave was: "Leave your nets, come follow Me and I will make you fishers of men." Now is a great time to be in physical form. Marvelous Spiritual experiences will be given to many. These experiences will manifest to those that are ready and will prove without a doubt that all are One in the Power of the Most High called God.

Discourse No. 12

Look within. All that ever was or ever will be is within yourself. All experiences that people have has already happened in some other lifetime. You live what you have created. The lower soul contains the memory of all you have ever been, so you can understand with your physical mind, words given to explain. Such a word is seed atom. The Love of your God Self, also others that have overcome the world, feed you with food you know not of. Also between lifetimes and in your sleep time you go to school. There comes a time when the Spirit within breaks through and will reveal the Life Force within this seed atom and all things are revealed. You are shown the past, the now and the future. The seed atom is the perfect image of your God-Self. It contains the gifts you are to perfect as you travel your worldly path. From this seed your Tree of Life grows, sometimes bearing perfect fruit, sometimes not. How precious the gift of God's mercy.

As your own will is shown to you, you now have the privilege to use my Violet Flame to erase your mistakes, preparing yourself to be a pure vessel to be filled by the Holy Spirit and fulfill the mission to bring God's Kingdom to Earth. As above, so below. When the Earth and the Higher realms are One, the Soul is redeemed. All within is pure Spirit, full of Light and love and ready to fulfill greater missions.

Now the ones that are to be joined again with their twin flame will receive great blessings; there will be festivals of joy that cannot be expressed in words. Choirs of Angels and all the Heavenly Host will bring forth Hallelujahs that will resound throughout the universe. There will be many twin rays as this is a time of great change for all of creation. After the celebration each pair as One will return to their home planet to go into the silence and wait for their Father-Mother Light to appear and welcome them back into the Flame of their Substance. There they must make a choice; to either stay as one and work from a cosmic consciousness or separate again to help those in lower worlds. Although they are cosmic Beings knowing God's will, they still have the privilege of choosing their way. You see, they are "God's."

Wisdom combined with Love is abounding upon the Earth. The promise of God is manifesting. The Hierarchy is so grateful to all those that are performing their special missions and receive, at the same time living through their own karma; each will receive special blessings from us.

As I come to enlighten you, the feeling of unrest abides within those that sleepeth. Fear fills their life as they hear of disasters. Even many that are searching for Truth are using worldly means for protection. I can explain to you that you should go within, find God and the way will be made clear to you. I know you understand these words, but these words must live within your soul, not just your mind.

The world was created by Divine Beings. They had evolved into great Wisdom, having dominion over all they created from the universal supply of the Absolute. The plan for the Essence called Life was directed by the Father-Mother Substance of the planet. The Father-Mother Substance of Earth was Spirit, so all was created in that image ... all brought together in one Mind by the Silent Watcher of the Planet. When the Essence became form, the Power of the Father-Mother nurtured and guided this Substance through all forms and conditions of life from the smallest cell, all evolving into the form called man. Man has been all forms of life. The promise to everlasting Life releases man from this worldly evolution which is false; as the Substance was first Spirit all will return as such, now having within their consciousness the Wisdom of the true Creator, the Divine Beings. Now they will be Cosmic Beings, having dominion over all. See the pattern; you are the created and the Creator. Bless all as all are One.

Discourse No. 14

When mankind on Planet Earth comes to the realization of the existence of a Superior Source more powerful than the physical mind, the enemy of self-destruction will cease. All will manifest the Glory of God within. The true meaning of the words of Jesus Christ will be revealed. Spiritual Love will spread over all the Earth and draw mankind into the one Mind of superior source. Although all those that are in physical bodies at this time will receive an awakening they will not necessarily be receiving from the same level of consciousness. There will always be leaders and followers. As above, so below; all of creation will search through all of eternity, always searching for a higher meaning of Truth.

Truth is Wisdom found only within. Love is the key to the Power within. Praising and thanking this Power within opens up the Door to the Wisdom where Truth dwells. The Spirit within (Spirit has many names) reveals this Truth according to your awakening. It is important to keep an open mind so as to grow; do not be single-minded believing you or even a leader or teacher has all Truth. This is false. No one can reveal all Truth. You have the right to ask for the highest truth that you can understand to be given unto you ... given by Divine beings of Wisdom and not from worldly spirits (meaning those ones that have no physical body.)

The Presence of God that awakens you is what is called the "Baptism of the Holy Spirit." This brings a new way of life. The inner Self is saying "Awake, thou that sleepest, know thou you Me, for I AM within you." As time moves on, all must move with it; all life is now being lifted up. Every time even just one soul has overcome the world, all are lifted also. Why? It is that all are One in the Power called God which is a part of the Essence, the Absolute, All in All that is Substance that takes form for all to experience the allness of this silent Power. All must travel the path of Allness to selfness, then back to the Allness. The way is long, the lessons difficult. This I say before I depart; all will be blest ... no one left out ... every soul will receive the Holy Spirit. There is a time and place for all mankind. When the blessing of Spirit comes upon you, no longer will you feel alone. Many blessings are given by Divine Beings to comfort you along the way. So be it.

Discourse No. 15

As time goes by, the belief in one Power will penetrate the minds of mankind and the problems of the Earth will be no more. Peace shall reign, making all things new. Blessings will flow, each soul receiving their reward for a mission complete. Your Gathering together to praise and honor this Oneness will no longer be held in man-made churches. Small groups will gather in private homes, larger ones in parks, others in large open spaces, as meadows, valleys and hilltops; all receiving the Breath of God as it flows over the planet, gathering all minds into a Spiritual consciousness of being One, the I AM of the Absolute.

I have given you a prophecy of things to come. "How do I make sure that I will be among those of which you speak?" you ask. Bless all for asking. You grow through the vast number of lifetimes. The process seems more than you can comprehend with the physical mind. The blessing of coming back to Earth time and again is a gift bestowed upon you by your Christ-Self. Each time you come as a babe with no memory of your past lives. This gives you a new start. The time as the world knows it hangs heavy upon you as you pass through the world you yourself have created. Eternity, God's time, fills you with Peace and Joy as each worldly creation you transmute into Light. Each time you travel a worldly life, you come with greater Love, even if it may not seem so to you or your fellow man. At some time you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, the promise given unto all creation; "Where you are I AM, my Love is within you, you are my creation in whom I am well pleased."

Glory to God, praise His Name, you proclaim. A sign has been given. There truly is a Power greater than yourself. You have been blest; a new door has opened and you begin to search with new vim. You lift your voice to others. Some are ready, some are not. Behold, the ones that are not can convince you that you are having hallucinations. It is best to speak not; rest silently in your Divine awakening. You must be strong and well balanced in your faith. Also, when you are to speak, the Holy Spirit will use you. Always remember you are nothing but a worldly entity God has created to bring His presence into the worldly Earth to establish His Kingdom. Go not into the world and preach until you have been Divinely called. The call comes not from a worldly desire. The Holy Spirit will show you; it will be given very clear. Then it will manifest in your world when the time is right. So even after the call has been given, wait upon the Spirit; let it lead, as it knows where the physical body is needed to receive the Spiritual food for those that are to be fed.

Those that give forth too soon after the Gifts of the Spirit are giving only a small part of great Wisdom. The Door opened but they have only entered in. The door (mind) must be kept open, for the Holy Spirit to give wisdom from all levels of consciousness. If you stay on only one level and believe you have the one and only Truth, your gift will fade and drop away as a dead leaf falls from a tree.

Discourse NO. 16

The greatness of Divine Power is now being given to those that remain true to their mission; they shall bring forth great manifestations from their own Christ-Self to reveal the Power of the Creator coming from the Essence known only as the Absolute. The Glory will shine in their eyes. Their ears shall hear the Word of God. Their mouths shall give forth the Word of God. Many channels are needed to bring forth the Word. We of the Hierarchy use many channels that are not as we would like, but as the Word must be given, we use that which is available in hopes they will grow as we give. Many have a great desire to serve us; they are called to appear to appear to the Karmic Board. Their past is reviewed and some are accepted on a trial basis. They are tested in many ways. In their Earth life a mission is given. It may seem of little importance, but it is how you perform this small mission that you will be chosen for a greater and then a greater mission. Many stay true to their mission only to grow for self. When they pass from the Earth world, they find they have not built as large a mansion as they thought but they will receive some credit for giving the message to the world. We of the Hierarchy are aware of the pitfalls; the power of worldly glory. We have all traveled the same path. So we do not condemn; just at times give a reminder that time is short and all missions are important. We understand the desire to help the world in a physical way. This brings me to the real meaning of "Way of life."

Accept Jesus Christ as your teacher and guide. Seek and you shall find. Go within for there I AM. Love your neighbor as yourself. See only the Christ in all you meet. The Power of God within doeth the work. Condemn not those that know not the way; forgive them God, for they know not what they do. Every day is God's day; keep it Holy.

Ye are Gods in the Spirit; accept and know this and all things will be given unto you. The Spirit shall fill your Earthy self with pure Light and ye shall be healed. Jesus said, "Physician, heal thyself." Let no man or Spirit tell you what to eat or drink, or of Holy day or Spiritual Festivals. All such shall be revealed from the Christ-Self, so relax; let life unfold. So be it.
